Camp Stella Maris Holds Open House

Camp Stella Maris will hold open house for the public, for the first time, on Sunday, May 31, from 1-5 p.m. Families are invited to meet the staff and participate in games, prizes and refreshments at the camp, 3052 East Lake Road, Livonia.

Camp Stella Maris, entering its 44th year, covers 20 acres on the shore of Conesus Lake.

There are facilities and staff for 180 campers each weekly period. Seminarians and area college students serve as counselors.

Corning Students Display Artwork

Corning — "To everything there is a season" was the theme this month of an art exhibit featuring the work of area Catholic students. The show, which drew from the work of the three Corning Catholic grade schools, was displayed at St. Mary School.

The media used ranged from the traditional crayons and paints to the less conventional egg shells, buttons, macaroni, wire and coat hangers.

Sister Mary Adolphine, RSM., vice principal of St. Mary school was in charge of the exhibit assisted by Miss Judy Dugan as general chairman. Miss Marilyn Cavalaro, of St. Patrick School and Sister Kathleen Vaeth, RSM., of St. Vincent de Paul School were chairmen of their respective schools.

School Slates Reading Classes

Special morning reading classes for third through eighth grade children will be conducted from July 1 through 31 at St. Philip Neri School, 1772 Clifford Ave.

The program will be two-fold: 1) Corrective — to include children who are not reading at grade level and have the ability to do better; 2) Skills-Centered Approach — to include children who are performing at grade level but who are not working to ability because of lack of study skills.

Classes are scheduled on Monday through Friday mornings — either from 8:30 to 10:15 or from 10:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. Total fee is $30, to include instruction, testing and materials. A $10 deposit is required at registration.

Information may be obtained from Sister Roberta (at the school, 288-6150, or at the convent, 654-8528).

Art Gallery Exhibition Honors Carl Hersey

An exhibition honoring Carl K. Hersey, from 1936 to 1968 chairman of the department of fine arts of the University of Rochester, is current at the Memorial Art Gallery Sunday.

Professor Hersey retires from teaching this year after 34 years on the University of Rochester faculty.

The exhibition, "Homage to Carl K. Hersey," is a collection of art objects and photographs that illustrate his contributions in a number of areas: his work for the preservation of local architectural landmarks, his teaching and research in art and architectural history, and his collections of early lighting equipment, Yankee utensils, American historical flasks, and Spanish iron and copper work. A special section is devoted to his work with the Gallery, which he served as a member of the Board of Managers and its art committee during his years as fine arts department chairman.

Hersey is a former president of the Landmark Society, the Rochester Historical Society and the Central New York Society of Architectural Historians. He has been a consultant to the New York State Council on the Arts since 1963.
