D-Day Opens Diocesan Prayer Crusade for Invasion Success

(D-DAY IN THE DIOCESE OF ROCHESTER) ---Following Tuesday's early dawn dispatch heralding the long-awaited invasion of Europe, the 230,000 Catholics of the Diocese of Rochester fell to their knees in an unprecedented demonstration of calm faith in God and prayer for the doughboys who were storming the shores of France. Europe's D-Day became a Prayer Day here, especially for the thousands whose husbands, sons, and brothers are members of General Eisenhower's invasion forces.

Stirred by the constant barrage of news reports and radio flashes on the Allied progress, Catholics on
