

Peace

A windmill towers above a gentle summer evening in the country. (RNS Photo)

AN INSIDE LOOK

- Pat Costa wants to see more of White House ... Page 2B
- "Z" is worth seeing, says Catholic film office Page 2B
- Adult ideas make good gifts for children Page 10B
- Summer-time, leisure-time, salad-time Page 10B

Courier to Run New Puzzle

If you think that the crossword is a popular puzzle, hold the pencil. A local puzzle buff, Sam Stein has just created and copyrighted a brand new arithmetic puzzle called Mini-Math. Both educational and entertaining, Mini-Math will be featured in the Courier Journal beginning next week.

We will be one of the first newspapers in the country to feature this beguiling puzzle. Get your pencil sharp and eraser ready and watch for it in the next issue.

This Is the Courier Second Section

EN
AN S
C
ACH
AS
C
LB.