

United to Heal: Nurses
Doctors
Security Men
Chaplains

a.m. Rochester General Hospital ambu- the hospital giving Holy Communion. There are new acci- patients to be seen, a group meeting in the Mental Health meet center, a premature baby to be baptized, a terminal patient who just wants to talk.

ey, at Then a doctor, a nurse or another employee has an es, he urgent personal problem. Suddenly, the "blue alert" mfort- sounds as a patient takes a turn for the worse. After Sick, lunch, there's a conference for student nurses and tomorrow's surgical patients to be visited.

needs Specialization among physicians and computerization n is a of their techniques have improved the ultimate care of l care the patient, but Father Tormey believes they also leave cial." the patient more in need of personal attention. The hospital chaplain, Catholic, Protestant, or Jew, is motivated and l Hos- inspired by the religious conviction of the infinite worth ans 24 of the whole human person, and the priceless value of ack in life, love and compassion in the midst of suffering. He is a sign of these values.

Absolution and Anointing

Listening word of the health of the patient.

(Photos by Louis Ouzer)

At peace with the Lord, a friend nearby.

