Aquinas Organizes Festival Parade

Giant animals and clowns, gorgeous queens riding in open convertibles, fleets of decorated sports cars, flying banners, trumpets and drums—a real parade will enliven the Aquinas Institute neighborhood tomorrow night, June 18.

Eleven musical marching units and color guard outfits will set the pace in this living advertisement for the festival at Aquinas Memorial Stadium. The parade will leave the school grounds for the stadium at 7 p.m.

Carnival rides will be open tonight, June 17. The festival will take place Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. A one-dollar ticket will be offered for unlimited rides Saturday afternoon.

Gallery Slates

Architecture, Advertising Art

Two exhibitions organized by Rochester professional groups will go on display June 20 at the Memorial Art Gallery, 490 University Avenue.

On view will be the annual exhibition of advertising and display art produced by members of the Rochester Society of Communicative Arts and "Architect," an examination by the Rochester Chapter, American Institute of Architects, of the past, present and future of their profession. The shows will be up through July 12.

Focusing on the future of architecture, the A.I.A. show illustrates some possible solutions to the problems of land use, visual pollution, population explosion, landmark preservation, housing and education.

Outdoor Opera Opens July 2

For the 18th season of free outdoor shows in the Highland Park Bowl, "Opera Under the Stars" this year will present two of the great works of the lyric stage, each to be performed twice, in English.

Puccini's "Tosca" is scheduled for Thursday evening, July 2, and Saturday, July 4. Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffman" will be given Thursday, July 30, and Saturday, August 1. The four performances will be produced by the summer session of the University of Rochester's Eastman School of Music, in cooperation with the city and county. Leonard Treash, director of the Eastman opera department, is artistic director of "Opera Under the Stars," which he founded in 1953.

Westinghouse Gives you a roomful of Cool, Clean, Refreshing Air with a Room Air Conditioner

Now Specially Priced at

$179.95

Model ACD-69-LIQ

Westinghouse gives you the right kind of cool anytime, day or night. This 6,000 BTU model is loaded with such fine features as adjustable air directional louvers to flow air toward any area of your room. An eleven-position thermostat automatically maintains desired room temperature. A big 3-speed fan lets you regulate between high, medium and night cool. A high efficiency dehumidification system takes the hot, humid moisture out of the air to keep you cool and refreshed. The vent control system exhausts or circulates room air. A handsome walnut panel front lifts easily to expose controls and filter. The new framed filter is easy to remove and can be washed. Come into RG&E now and get your Westinghouse custom compact air conditioner. It's light enough to carry with you, if you want to.

Or call RG&E at 546-2700, extension 2428 and have it delivered to your home.
