

A discussion of inner city problems highlighted a five-day examination of racism that Cardinal Mooney students organized. Here, Phale Hale of Fight talks with faculty member James Smith and Sally Steinwachs, one of the National Honor Society sponsors. With books and movies to supply background, English, history and theology classes zeroed in on prejudice as a "white man's problem" during the "Moratorium on Racism."
