

School Gets New Flag

A new flag, one that graced the State Capitol in Albany, now flies at St. Joseph's School, Wayland. The flag was obtained

Father Nolan Is Honored

Geneva — Father Raymond P. Nolan, pastor of St. Stephen's Church here, was granted a doctor of humane letters degree at the Hobart and William Smith Colleges commencement ceremonies June 14.

He was cited for his education, community and youth service activities. Father Nolan was founder and first chaplain of the Newman Club at the colleges; chairman of the Geneva Youth Bureau for two terms; twice president of the Geneva Community Chest and an honorary life member of its board, a former principal of De Sales High School, and is on the board of the Geneva Red Cross Chapter.

through the efforts of State Sen. William Smith who explained that, under certain conditions, such flags are available to schools after being raised and displayed over the Capitol.

A special ceremony was conducted at the school when the flag was raised here for the first time, with a seventh grade, three-boy team carrying out the assignment. Selected to raise the flag were Kevin Kilbourne (above, left) and Michael Fahy (center) while Richard Saxton led the Pledge of Allegiance by more than 200 pupils in front of the school.
