

Fisher College Elects Five New Trustees

Five new members have been elected to the Board of Trustees of St. John Fisher College. Elected were:

Francis C. Argento of 26 Landau Drive. Argento was elected to a one-year term as representative of the Alumni Association of St. John Fisher College. Argento is a member of several associations for businessmen including the Rochester Chamber of Commerce, the Businessmen Association of Rochester, the Small Business Association of Rochester and the Transportation Club of Rochester. He is the immediate past president of St. John Fisher College Alumni Association.

Kenneth E. Clark of 3500 Elmwood Avenue. Clark is the dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Rochester. He has had several papers published and has written four books including America's Psychologists. He is on the board of directors of the Civic Music Association and the board of managers of the Memorial Art Gallery of the University of Rochester.

The Rev. Joseph B. Dorsey, C.S.B., vice-president for academic affairs at St. John Fisher College. Father Dorsey was assistant professor of English at St. Michael's College in the University of Toronto for 14 years. He is a member of the American Association for higher Education and recently returned from sabbatical leave at the Institute for Higher Education at Claremont University in California.

William E. Lee of 239 Sandringham Drive. He is president of Sibley, Lindsay and Curr Co.

In addition, he is the vice-president of Associated Dry Goods Corporation and is director of several firms including Security Trust Company, Rochester Jobs, Inc. and Highland Hospital. Lee is also the chairman of the Retail Merchants Council of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce and is trustee of Rochester Savings Bank and George Eastman House.

Albert J. McMullen of 330 Ambassador Drive. McMullen is president and director of Garlock, Inc. and director of all Garlock domestic and foreign affiliates. He is a trustee of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce, director of Rochester

Hospital Service and director of the Management Council of Rochester. He is also director of several other Rochester and
