Camara For Peace Prize

Evian-les-Bains, France — (RNS)—Roman Catholic Archbishop Helder Pessoa Camara of Brazil was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize by the Lutheran World Federation's Fifth Assembly.

The Archbishop of Olinda and Recife was called "a symbol for those who have devoted their lives to the struggle against oppression and inhuman conditions."

Youth delegates had asked the endorsement, campaigned for it, and gained the support of the influential Dr. Gustav Wingren of Lund, Sweden.

Archbishop Pessoa has been particularly critical of the present Brazilian government which is alleged to have tortured political prisoners.

Added to 'Register'

Denver — (NC) — Msgr. Alexander O. Sigur of Lafayette, La., a former editor of the Southwest Louisiana Register, has been named editor of Priests—USA, a new monthly supplement to the National Register. The supplement, aimed at the nation's Catholic clergy, will make its first appearance Aug. 2.

Father William F. Graney, a veteran of 13 years on the staff of the Chicago archdiocesan paper, The New World, will serve as the monthly's executive director. He is full-time executive secretary of the National Federation of Priests' Councils, which is sponsoring the supplement "to reach the priests of the nation and to keep them in close touch with one another."

'Integration' as 'Colossal Lie'

Radnor, Pa. — (NC) — John Oliver Killens, black author, charges that television programs and commercials depict a "colossal lie" about Negroes in the American way of life.

Killens is an adjunct professor of writing at Columbia University. He is the author of "The Black Man's Burden," several other books, and co-founder of the Harlem Writers Workshop.

Writing in the July 25 issue of TV Guide, published here, Killens admitted blacks have made some strides in the industry.

"The problem is that the television establishment is attempting to give the world the image of an integrated society in all facets of American life, even in advertising and commercials, which is all well and good except that it is a colossal lie, because America is not an integrated society.
