Priest-Protestor Pleads Innocent

Minneapolis — (NC) — Father Harold Bury, coordinator of the University of Minnesota Newman Center, pleaded innocent in court to charges growing out of his participation in a peace protest.

No trial date was set for the priest charged with blocking the sidewalk, unlawful assembly, breach of the peace and interfering with a police officer.

The charges had been filed after the priest's arrest as police tried to break up a peace demonstration July 16.

Canadian Priest Slain

Calgary, Alta — (NC) — Calgary police announced the arrest of a man charged in the fatal shooting of Father Joseph Hadjusik of St. Elizabeth Church.

Police said Anton Szabo, charged with Father Hadjusik's murder, called police to the scene after he had shot the priest with a hunting rifle.

The priest had been summoned to Szabo's home, police reported, by a man who had said he wanted his confession heard. A disagreement that reportedly followed ended with the priest's death.

New Loyola President Named

Chicago — (NC) — Father Robert C. Baumhart, S.J., 46, has been appointed president of Loyola University of Chicago. He succeeds Father James M. Maguire, S.J., president the past 15 years, who became university chancellor last February.

Father Baumhart, who joined the Jesuits in 1946, is an alumnus of Loyola and of Northwestern University. He holds a master's degree from Harvard. He has been at Loyola since 1962 and for the last four years was executive vice president.

Father Baumhart will be in charge of all operations at the Jesuit institution.

Chicago to Open Diaconate Program

Chicago — (NC) — The Chicago archdiocese has announced plans to launch a program early next year to train laymen for ordination as permanent deacons.

Training will begin in January according to Father John Ring, executive director of the Chicago archdiocesan office for the permanent diaconate. He is currently involved in developing a philosophical and theological basis for the program new to this area.

Catholic Chaplains Rap Abortion

Washington — (NC) — An association of 900 Catholic chaplains has declared its opposition against abortion and offered "support and encouragement" to doctors declining to perform the operations now legal in some states.

In a statement released July 23, members of the National Association of Catholic Chaplains (NAAC) also offered to counsel and advise expectant mothers and fathers of unwanted children about alternatives to abortion.

The priests serve as chaplains in federal, state and community health care facilities throughout the United States.

California Rejects Parochial Aid

Sacramento, Calif. — (NC) — Possibility of state aid to California's 400,000 non-public school students has been killed in Senate Finance Committee action here.

The bill's author, Sen. George Moscone (D-San Francisco), has announced, however, that the legislation "is too important to California and its taxpayers to drop." He plans to introduce a similar measure aiding private school students during the state's next legislative session.

The bill, which would have provided aid to parents or guardians of students attending non-public elementary and high schools, was earlier approved by a voice vote of the policy-making education committee.
