

owing

by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Roch-Our Lady of Lourdes and St. Am-ave two-hour classes every weekday to them in the ordinary school curhe topic is ceramics, sewing or sci-Enrichment Program over the past

Mary Jane Petruzi and Celest Dynski (above) use puppets to develop creative expression; (below) Sister Maria's science class analyzes the composition of light with spectroscopes they themselves made.

John Ranalli and Donald DiGenarro (above) experiment with string to discover how sound waves travel as (right) John Lagnese gets the good word around his art class with his cardboard monoprint.

