

ces beautifying the monastery. There nship pieces done by the monastery's cting the monastery but even the casas his eyes are soothed by the sight of God's earth, of the flowers of the field atching off into distant valleys thromajesty of the realization that he, too,

Photos by John Dash

Our Lady Queen of Peace.
Donated by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Spaeth.

Father Luke tends to monastery garden.

Father Placid — peace in the field.