Miss Mary Hannick, director of Genesee Settlement House in Rochester's inner city, presents citation to Kevin Beale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Beale, at closing of Camp Fisher, summer day camp conducted by the House. Kevin, 12, has attended the camp program since he was two years old.

Mary Hannick to Retire

Miss Mary L. Hannick, executive director of the Genesee Settlement House, last week presided for the last time at

Meeting Stresses Devotion to Mary

Devotion to the Blessed Mother to obtain spiritual graces was stressed at a meeting of the Rochester Chapter of the Blue Army of Our Lady of Fatima on Thursday night, Aug. 13, in Holy Rosary School Hall.

Speaker was Father Albert J. Shamon, diocesan vicar for education, who is spiritual director of the newly-formed Blue Army chapter.

Mrs. Mary Kelly, chapter president, said the group is sponsoring all-night worship vigils beginning at 9 p.m. each first Friday of the month and closing with a 6 a.m. Saturday Mass. The vigils, broken into hourly devotional exercises, are conducted in Holy Rosary Church.

The chapter also is sponsoring the showing of a series of 15 films on the Rosary and the Message of Fatima. Second in the series is scheduled at 2 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 23, in St. Joseph's Commercial High School.

the house's Camp Fisher closing program.

She plans to retire next July after 25 years as director of the settlement house.

Closing of this summer's camp program was highlighted at two gatherings of campers and parents—a picnic on Tuesday at Ellison Park and an awards and farewell program the following day at the Dake Street house.

Among citations presented by Miss Hannick were two to staffers for ten years' service. Recipients were Bessie Tranquill, the camp's pre-schoolers supervisor, and counselor Barbara Caimono Bergeron, a Hilton teacher. Campers are boys and girls from two to twelve years old.

Miss Hannick was presented with a purse and cards signed with campers' names. "When I retire," she commented, "I'm going to write a book about Genesee Settlement House."
