

Zorba Due Sept. 18-19

Two top stars—Vivian Blaine and Michael Kermoyan — will play the leading roles in the national touring company production of "Zorba," the smash-hit Broadway musical, when it comes to the Auditorium Theatre on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 18-19, at 8:30 p.m.

Vivian Blaine will play the vivacious French lady with fading memories of old conquests who draws the attention of the lusty vagabond (Zorba) when he visits her island.

Michael Kermoyan will have the title role in "Zorba," an exuberant vagabond who instills a love of joyful living in everyone he meets.

Also in the cast will be Thom Koutzoukos, in the role of the young teacher who learns so much from the rough-hewn, uneducated Zorba. The saddened widow with whom the teacher falls in love will be played by Vilma Vaccaro.

The large supporting cast sings and dances the spiningling bouzouki music that is modern Greece's major contribution to theatrical enjoyment.

The national touring company production of "Zorba" is being presented in Rochester by Original Performances Inc. The box office sale for "Zorba" is on at the Eastman Theater.

K. of C. Urges: No 'Oscars' for X-Rate Films

Hourton — (RNS) — The Knights of Columbus has urged the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Science not to nominate any X-rated films for an "Oscar."

The recommendation came in a resolution which was passed by the K. of C. Supreme Council, the top legislative and advisory unit of the 1.2-million member Roman Catholic men's fraternal order, at its 88th annual meeting here.

In asking that the motion picture agency adopt this procedure for future Academy Award nominations in the "Best Picture of the Year" category, the K. of C. resolution declared that giving an X-rated film such a prestigious position "tends to glorify sex, pornography and perversion."

Mercy Sister Joins NCEA Staff

Washington —(NC)— Sister Mary Barbara Sullivan of the Sisters of Mercy, Belmont, N.C., took office Sept. 1 as acting executive secretary of the elementary school department, National Catholic Education Association here. She will continue to serve as supervisor of schools conducted by the Sisters of Mercy in the Raleigh, N.C., Rockville Centre, N.Y., and Orlando, Fla., diocese.

Before becoming a nun, Sister Mary Barbara had served as a surgical nurse with the U.S. Navy.

REUNION HELD

Sisters Ann Maurau, SSJ, and Ann Martin, SSJ, recently attended the 15th annual reunion of the Morris and Marchand families in Mendon, N.Y.

Also attending were 64 out-of-town members of the family at the gala hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Morris formerly of Burlington Mass. now of Rochester.

Beware of checking accounts that bite

Most of them do, you know. Right in the old wallet. Say you write an average of about four hundred checks a year on one of those Fancy Dan regular or economy checking accounts. More than likely it'll cost you an unnecessary $40.00 for the privilege. Money right down the chute. Money which might have been spent for additional insurance. Or a bicycle.

Another bank (besides us) advertises "free" checking accounts. No strings attached, etc. Baloney. As long as you've got to qualify for a line of credit first, it's about as free as a week in Verona. If you accidentally overdraw on one of those babies, you're going to get stung with some nasty old interest on an "automatic loan." It's enough to give a thinking person the shakes. The up-to-12% or more-a-year shakes.

Look, our checking accounts really are free. As many personalized checks as you want to write. No minimum balances, free monthly statements and postage-paid bank-by-mail folders, no required lines of credit.

We can offer such logical services because we're the only privately owned and governed commercial bank around. If your present bank is bossed around by a huge, impersonal, out-of-town holding company, it can't afford to put its customers first. Isn't it nice that there's still one bank who can?

Come to the littlest bank* in town.
We'll pamper the blazes out of you.

*If we'd been any smaller when we started in 1965, we'd have had to use a sock for our main vault. We've come a long, long way.
