By a 55-39 vote the measure proposed by Sens. George S. McGovern, (D-S.D) and Mark O. Hatfield, (R-Ore.) to cut off all financing of Vietnam area war by the end of 1971, was rejected.

"I was disappointed in the defeat of the McGovern-Hatfield 'amendment to end the " said Father Patrick P. McDermott, S.J., assistant director for peace of the USCC division, "because the Senate action did not help settle the crucial issue, that is, the continuing American military presence in Southeast Asia.

"The President, for a variety of reasons, has remained silent on his ultimate withdrawal plans, whether or not they are tied to the survival of the present Saigon government or one like it," he said.

'A Privilege'

Bp. Walsh Describes China Stay

Ossining, N.Y. — (NC) — Speaking to a capacity crowd of Maryknollers assembled here in his honor, Bishop James E. Walsh called his experience in -China—including 12 years in a Communist prison—a privilege.

In a voice which faltered at first but became stronger and animated, the 79-year-old prelate addressed about 900 priests, Religious and laymen associated with the order during a special day of thanksgiving at Maryknoll headquarters.

"I thank God for giving me what I call a privilege," Bishop Walsh said during the thanksgiving Mass he concelebrated with 184 other Maryknoll priests. He added that it was a "privilege to stay with my people in China in their troubled time."

Referring to his imprisonhim, in a sense, through shared ment, he said it was an even greater privilege "to share in my slight little degree in the hardship . . . in the cause of Him who took our sins upon Himself and suffered so much for me and for all men."

A missionary in China for 40 years, Bishop Walsh was executive secretary of the Catholic Central Bureau in Shanghai-an office coordinating all Catholic missionary, cultural, welfare and educational activities in China.

The bureau was closed in 1956, and the Red Chinese jailed Bishop Walsh on charges of espionage in 1958. Although sentenced to 20 years imprison. ment, he was released early-July 8-due to old age and poor health.

The bishop thanked Maryknollers from all over the U.S. -who jammed Mary Queen of Apostles Chapel during the day of thanksgiving—for their prayers. "They gave me a feeling of security and consolation all through the 12 years I was in captivity," he said.
