

Australia to Have Deacons

Sydney, Australia — (NC) — The establishment of the permanent diaconate in this country has been approved in principle by the Australian bishops. They will draw up rules for the training of permanent deacons.

Auxiliary Bishop Edward Kelly of Sydney said that the permanent diaconate will be for mature men and could include those who are married.

NEW EDITION
Evansville, Ind. — (NC) — The debut of the Evansville diocesan edition of The Criterion is scheduled for Oct. 2. Jeff Hayes, managing editor, said the paper already has recorded a pre-publication circulation of more than 12,000. The Criterion is the newspaper of the Indianapolis archdiocese.

Leave Democrats, Pastor Urges

Santa Ana, Calif. — (RNS) — A Catholic pastor here has advised parishioners to quit the Democratic Party in California because of its stand on abortion.

Father Michael Collins, pastor of St. Barbara's, urged this as a protest against the party's call for "abortion on demand." He said his action had "nothing to do with politics; we are fighting immorality in government."

CANDIDATE FOR U.S. SENATOR

TV or not TV

The answer is up to you

NEW YORKERS have three candidates but only two real choices in this year's U.S. Senate race. They can choose one of two ultra-liberal politicians representing a single point of view, or they can choose James L. Buckley, a man who speaks out eloquently for a restoration of the values most Americans cherish.

Buckley Backs Nixon

Buckley is the only candidate who supports our President's quest for an honorable peace in Vietnam. The others clamor for a pell mell pull-out which would make a mockery of American sacrifice and valor.

Buckley supports Nixon's tough proposals to curtail the alarming increase in violent crime. The others oppose the President.

It's the same on other key issues. Buckley stands for what most New Yorkers and most Americans want. His opponents, Goodell and Ottinger, are the "Tweedle Dum" and "Tweedle Dee" of the same negative, discredited viewpoint.

Campus Riots

Like most New Yorkers—and most Americans—Jim Buckley is shocked and outraged at the spectacle of our great colleges and universities being paralyzed by the terrorist tactics of a handful of radicals. Too often, he observes, they are abetted by administrators and politicians more interested in making excuses for the terrorists than they are in protecting the rights of the majority of students.

Buckley believes most students want their colleges to go about the business of providing them with an education so they can benefit themselves and society by reaching the highest levels of achievement of which they are capable.

Buckley Has What It Takes

The last time Buckley ran for Senator his campaign was conducted on a shoestring budget of $170,000—no television, virtually no radio. Even so, he amazed the pundits and the politicians by amassing a total of 1,139,402 votes. These were the people that got to know Jim Buckley and what he stands for: a man of integrity, of keen intelligence and deep compassion, a man who loves his country and has faith in her institutions.

Television—The Key

Many more would have supported him if he had been able to come into their homes through television. This time, through the faith and generosity of thousands of his supporters, we've made a start. This time Buckley TV messages have been filmed and, as more contributions come in, we are beginning to get them on the air.

If you voted for Buckley before (or now wish you had!) you can "vote" for him again—right now—by sending in your contributions to help him get his message across on television.

Yes, this time Buckley can win. But to do so he needs your help.

You know the kind of money his opposition can be expected to spend!

Ottinger's Mother Delivers

One of Jim Buckley's opponents has just bulldozed his way through to victory in the Democratic Primary by spending almost $2 million on a saturation TV campaign. Most of the money—as it turns out—was a "loan" from his mother. His opponents have charged this was a violation of the Corrupt Practices Act. But there's lots more where that came from. Ottinger's mother delivers.

Goodell Turns to The New Left

Buckley's other opponent, the unelected Senator Goodell, darling of the New Left, is sedulously soliciting millions in nationwide appeals to supporters of the "Peace Movement."

Buckley is Counting On You

It boils down to this. Buckley can win. But he needs you. You can keep him on television. On the other hand, you need him. You need a man in the U. S. Senate who will speak your views, who will honor America.

If everyone who voted for Buckley last time around "votes" for him now by sending in just $1.00, Buckley will stay on TV and he will win. It's as simple as that. Your bucks for Buckley can turn the tide.
