

Adult Education Series Opens in Greece

There's a unique venture in adult education opening in Greece; a series of seminars jointly sponsored by the Greece Pastors Association and the Greece Central School District.

The three series are:

- The Family Living Seminar Series, to be held Mondays at Athena Central School, starting Sept. 28, presenting pertinent background information, common sex education terms, family living curriculum and related films to help parents better understand their children's questions and concerns. Among the featured speakers at this series are Sister Ruth Agnes of the Sex Education Committee of the Diocese of Rochester, Dr. Arthur Florack, MD, and Paul McVey and James Hunt of Family Service of Rochester. The series concludes on Nov. 16. A fee of $8 is charged.

- Drugs: Use/Abuse, to be held Wednesdays at Olympia Central School, starting Sept. 30, dealing with the history, legitimacy, controls, identification, terminology and an overview of what parents can do about drug abuse and use. Drs. Joseph A. Sergent and Gregory Riley, attorney, Joseph Darweesh, and social worker, Mrs. Roy Cabel, are featured. The series concludes Nov. 18 and no fee is charged.

- Ethical Problems of our Day—the New Morality, to be held Thursday starting Oct. 1, discussing topics and current social problems that have deviated from the generally accepted social norms thereby creating personal, family and public frustrations and conflicts. The series will be held at Olympia Central School and will feature among others, Father Robert O'Halloran of St. John Fisher College, Dr. Frederick Jefferson of Colgate-Rochester-Bexley Hall and Mrs. Joanne Taskett of National Organization for Women (NOW). The series concludes Dec. 10 and a fee of $9.50 is charged.

Registration for these seminars opens at the central schools Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 21-22.

K. of C. Councils Induct Officers

Auxiliary Bishop John E. McCafferty presided last night at the installation Mass of Horseheads Council, Knights of Columbus. Father Bartholomew J. O'Brien, pastor, celebrated the Mass in St. Mary Our Mother Church, Horseheads.

Officers for Our Lady of the Genesee Council, Henrietta, were installed last Saturday at Guardian Angels Church, after an evening Mass.

Elmira—Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Cirulli of North Main Street will mark their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, Sept. 20, at the 11:15 a.m. Mass at St. Anthony's. They were married there and have been members of the parish since its founding in 1910. Mr. Cirulli served many years as a parish trustee and is a past president of the Sacred Heart Men's Society and the Nocturnal Adoration Society. He also is a life member of Elmira Council—Knights of Columbus and the Fourth Degree Assembly and is a trustee of the Elks. The Cirulli's children, Harry, of Trumansburg; Arman, of Elmira and Mrs. John Considine of Syracuse, will be hosts at an open house Sunday afternoon at Lib's Supper Club. The family includes 13 grandchildren and one great grandson.

CYO Announces Swimming Classes

Even though summer has ebbed into the cold shoals of winter, the Catholic Youth Organization has announced two programs designed to make your next summer in the surf safer and more enjoyable.

Scuba diving classes start at the CYO, Monday, Sept. 21 at 7:30 p.m. The class will meet one night a week for 12 weeks and will concentrate on the use of skin diving and Scuba equipment, the physiology of Scuba diving, safety and diving regulations and a water test with equipment. Any interested person should contact Mrs. Osburn at (716) 454-2030.

A Red Cross Lifesaving Course for boys and girls begins Oct. 7 at 8 p.m. A fee of $10 is charged. To register call Mrs. Osburn at (716) 454-2030.

Aquinas Grid Outlook Bright

They've got 'em big and fast at Aquinas, and they've got 'em in large numbers.

A record turnout of Irish grid candidates were in action at the Dewey Avenue school this week, staging a gruelling workout as they prepared for the 1970 opener, against Mont Pleasant at Schenectady Sept. 18.

A schedule which shows the addition of Fairport and Newark High Schools marks the first time since 1944 that Aquinas has played New York State schools exclusively.

The season calls for a powerful squad, and at first glance it looks as though Coach Bob Rosmarino may have just that. Last season Aquinas closed with a 6-2 record and the Diocesan championship.

"We have a little more material than last year," Rosmarino observed, "but still have the problem of sorting it out. Some of the new linemen are bruisers and we have three or four running backs who look good."

Aquinas' game against Mont Pleasant is getting top billing in the Schenectady area. Larry Mulvaney, head football coach at Mont Pleasant for 16 years, is working with no fewer than 17 lettermen and can post a veteran at every spot. Last year Aquinas' downed the Raiders, 35-20.

Knights Hold Annual Pilgrimage

The Knights of Columbus annual pilgrimage to the Shrine of the North American martyrs at Auriesville was held last Sunday, Sept. 13.

Members of councils throughout the state and their families, took part in an afternoon Mass celebrated by Albany's Bishop Edwin B. Broderick and 12 of his priests who are K. of C. chaplains.

New Mass Schedule In Penn Yan

Penn Yan — A new schedule of Lord's Day Masses was announced here by Father Thomas F. McVeigh, pastor of St. Michael's Church and its mission, St. Andrew's, Dundee. Masses are slated as follows:

St. Michael's — Saturday, 8 p.m.; Sunday, 7, 9:30 and 11 a.m.; St. Andrew's — Sunday only, 9 a.m.

Wednesday, September 16, 1970

Nun Enters State Election

Spokane, Wash. — (NC) — Sister Elizabeth Kunz, a social sciences instructor at Fort Wright College of the Holy Names, is the latest Religious to enter the political arena.

Sister Kunz, 39, a Democrat, has filed for the 7th district state representative post currently held by a Republican.

Backed by the Washington State Democratic Council, the liberal wing of the state's Democratic Party, she said she would concentrate her campaign on encouraging a more youth-sensitive government.

Business In Diocese

Opens Office

Dr. Anthony J. Mascioli has opened an office for the practice of podiatry at 918 N. Main St., Newark. A native of Rochester, he took his pre-medical training at St. John Fisher College and was graduated in June, 1968 from the M. J. Lewis College of Podiatry in New York City. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Mascioli of 1535 Main St. E., Rochester. Dr. and Mrs. Mascioli live at 918 N. Main St., Newark.

Appointed

The appointment of David K. Cox as administrative director of Pepsi-Cola Rochester Bottlers, Inc., has been announced. Cox has assumed primary responsibilities for the vending and fountain service functions of the company with additional duties related to corporate expansion.

Club to Honor Businessman

The Citizens' Club of Rochester announced today that Rochester businessman Ralph DeStephano is the organization's "Citizen of the Year" for 1970, a year that also marks the 50th Anniversary of the Club.

DeStephano will be honored at the Citizens' Club's Golden Anniversary Dinner, Saturday, Oct. 3, at the Flagship Hotel.

DeStephano, of 100 Edgemere Drive, Greece, and president of Buchman's Dairy, has been one of the prime movers in the successful effort to re-locate Park Avenue Hospital in the Town of Greece. He is chairman of the soon-to-be-constructed Park-Ridge Hospital, which will serve the Northwest quadrant of Monroe County.
