

'God Helps 1

Some Auburn Area Deal with Soarin

Hundreds of men in the majority of parish low-parishioners on the next two weekends with dencing an increase in weekly parish support t

The effort is called the Auburn-Area Offe parishes and four mission churches. Committee weekends of Sept. 26-27 and Oct. 3-4.

Goal of the campaign for the 11 churches 000 in ordinary revenue over a three-year period

Msgr. James D. Cuffney, pastor of St. Mary the Auburn area, noted the current trend toward life and termed the program "a business-like ap

Although the campaign is being conducted each parish effort is separate and is confined to drive, as well as the training of comitteemen in a campaign coordinator.

Parishioners will be asked to estimate wha tribute weekly, God willing, for the next twelve that term commonly is used, but merely an "est" their committees to better prepare the parish bu

Needs differ widely in various parishes; ge for necessary renovations and improvements, in of debt, and the religious education programs fo

Also being stressed in campaign literature use the envelope system regularly, as the best t tent parish support.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. James D. Cuffney, V. F., Pastor of St. Mary's Church, confers on Offer-tory program plans with (l. to r.) William O'Toole, Arthur Janas and Ronald Oughterson.

Very Rev. Msgr. Joseph J. Sullivan, Pastor of Holy Family Church, dicusses plans with (l. to r.) Richard F. Woods, Paul J. Ringwood and James G. Cuddy.

Father Richard G. Stanton, Pastor of Our Lady of the Lake Church, King Ferry, confers with (l. to r.) Louis Fedrizzi and Edwin Fessenden.

Father Daniel Hogan discusses the programs for St. Hilary's, G Fleming, with (l. to r.) Francis J. McGarry, Allan E. Connell,