Aquinas Eleven Faces High-Riding Fairport

By WHIT JOHNSON

Both Bob Rosmarino of Aquinas and Pete Logan of Fairport High promise a gang war when their teams meet Friday night at Aquinas Memorial Stadium. Pre-game ticket sales indicate a big turnout for the 7:30 p.m. starting whistle.

The game between the two local school boy football powers marks a renewal of hostilities which broke off 36 years ago. That was back in 1934 when Aquinas coach Johnny Sullivan's Little Irish flattened Fairport 19-0. The series was inaugurated in 1931, the first year of Aquinas football, when the Irish squeezed by 13-12.

A spirit of optimism appeared to be breaking through the gloom which hung over the Dewey Avenue school this week after Aquinas' 34-12 defeat by Mont Pleasant of Schenectady in the season opener last Friday.

Leading the Fairport attack against Aquinas will be Chuck Kellogg, a bruising 6-foot-205 pound fullback. Kellogg is one of the big reasons the Raiders are No. 2 in local polls. In their opening game, the Raiders defeated Webster, 36-0, and Kellogg scored three touch-

Aquinas' leading ground gainer is Mike Palumbo who managed 48 yards in 13 carries in the Schenectady game for an average of 3.6 yards a carry.

SHAMROCK SHOTS... The three fall sports at Aquinas—football, soccer, and cross country—drew more than 300 students for tryouts, the largest turnout in the school's history. Aquinas Booster Club is planning two banquets for the year, one to be held in the fall and the other in the spring to honor all Aquinas sports teams... The varsity soccer team suffered its second loss of the season against a strong East High team last Thursday. The team record now is a tie and two losses. The Aquinas booters will be playing Monroe on Thursday at the stadium... Aquinas' Cross Country team will travel to RIT this Saturday for the McQuaid invitation.

Kearney - Brighton Game A First for the Kings

By TOM DOMALSKI

Saturday, Oct. 3, will be a first in Bishop Kearney football history. It will be the first time the Kings play a county team in a regular season game.

Brighton, coming off an undefeated year and defending their number one rank in the Times-Union Top Ten Poll, will be the opponent. The game will be played at 2 p.m. in Aquinas Stadium.

Kearney halfback Joe Kuby stated, "Nobody's really taking us that seriously. But we're taking ourselves seriously, and we think we're going to win." Kuby, whose knee was recently injured will be a doubtful starter Saturday against Brighton.

Quarterback Billy Hooke leads Barney Sullivan's Brighton team. Other probable starters include Mike Lippman, halfback; Joe DiGuigino, tailback; Doug Fletcher and John Forman, tackle; John Henderson and Phil Blecker, ends; and Fritz Shaffer, inside end.

Brighton's line is small, however. The Kings' problem is

CYO Offers Scout Course

The CYO will offer a six-week course in Boy Scout Swimming Merit Badge Tuesday and Thursday evenings, Oct 8 Nov. 12, 6-7 p.m.

The course is designed for scouts wishing to complete the swimming requirements for the merit badge, and is not intended to teach the fundamentals of swimming.
