Metro Football Takes 1st Step

By John Doser

The first step in forming a metropolitan high school football conference in the greater Rochester area gets its healthiest shot in the arm this weekend when four entries from the Central Western Conference's eastern division oppose the four Rochester Catholic grid teams.

The Catholic squads, Aquinas, Bishop Kearney, Cardinal Mooney and McQuaid already compete in most other sports with Rochester Interscholastic League (city) teams but have been shut out of any city or CWC football competition since Aquinas defeated a few (Fairport, Madison and Irondequoit if memory serves correct) public school 30 years ago or more.

The Catholics and the CWC agreed last spring to try some non-league stuff at least once. Here are the games and dates: Friday, (Oct. 2), Fairport at Aquinas (at AQ Stadium), 7:30 p.m.; Saturday (Oct. 3), McQuaid at Canandaigua, 2 p.m.; Brighton at Bishop Kearney (at AQ Stadium), 2 p.m.; and Cardinal Mooney at Brockport, 2 p.m.

The following week shows these contests: Saturday (Oct. 10), Aquinas at Newark, 2 p.m.; East Rochester at McQuaid, 2 p.m.; Bishop Kearney at Webster, 2 p.m.; and Irondequoit at Cardinal Mooney (at AQ Stadium), 2 p.m.

The games resulted from many hours of talks between officials of both groups and were actually brought about by the Town of Greece opening its third public high school—Greece Athena—forcing a nine team CWC western division and leaving an eight team CWC eastern division. If the latter were to avoid playing at least one division member twice, it had to go outside for an eighth game—and there stood the Catholic League in the wings with its four teams already playing each other twice because of similar problems.

The "deal" is for one year but needn't be limited to that, said Frank O'Donnell, then CWC president, last spring.

Factors which will influence any extension of the experiment include student behavior and good sportsmanship.

One thing is for certain. Where last year Brighton High won the Times-Union poll as No. 1, it did so without playing No. 2, Rush-Henrietta, or No. 3, Aquinas.

This season No. 1 will earn its spurs—assuming it's a member of the CWC's eastern division or a Catholic eleven. City schools and CWC western division members play schedules entirely within their own conferences.

A true No. 1 has to "beat 'em all" and we're a step closer to that prospect with this weekend's ballgames.

THE AQUINAS-FAIRPORT scrap may turn out to be the game of the season. Fairport, which overpowered Webster in its opener, boasts hard-running Chuck Kellogg who scored three of the Reds' TDs in their 36-0 rout of the Ridgemen.

Kellogg stands 6-feet-5, weighs 205 and is busy plowing up what's left of the forward walls ex-teammate Nick Pittinano (now graduated) left last year.

The Irish, who dropped their opener to Mt. Pleasant of Schenectady, didn't put their best defensive foot forward in that contest. "We got so far behind in the first half we couldn't catch up. We did play on even terms in the second half but the ballgame was already over," AQ coach Bob Rosmarino said.

Rosmarino watched Fairport maul Webster and came away impressed. "Those kids like to play football," said Rosy, who admitted the ball game won't be a pushover for his Irish.

We hope none of the inter-league clashes are pushovers—for either loop's teams. No good purpose will be served by lopsided scores.

We hope the games generate such enthusiasm for a metropolitan conference that schools which are now part of the problem (anti-metro) become part of the solution by supporting it.

YOU CAN MAKE IT A BETTER WORLD

THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH

ONLY YOU CAN DO THIS

How can you make this troubled world a better place? Pray for our native priests and Sisters each day, and do all you can to give them what they need. They are your ambassadors to the poor, and they get lonely, hungry, tired. Month by month, have a share in all the good they do!

For only $200 in Ernakulam you can build a decent house for a family that now sleeps on the sidewalks. Simply send your check to us. Cardinal Parecattil will write to thank you also.

Send a 'stringless' gift each month to the Holy Father to take care of the countless number of mission emergencies. He will use it where it's needed most.

MONTH BY MONTH YOU CAN HELP

Give a child a chance. In India, Ethiopia, and the Holy Land you can 'adopt' a blind girl, a deaf-mute boy, or a needy orphan for only $10 a month ($120 a year). We'll send you the youngster's photo, tell you about him (or her).

Send us your Mass Intentions. The offering you make, when a missionary priest offers Mass for your intention, supports him for one day. Mass intentions are his only means of support.

Feed a refugee family for a month. It costs only $10. We'll send you an Olive Wood Rosary from the Holy Land.

DO IT NOW

Somewhere in our 18-country mission world you can build a complete parish plant (church, school, rectory, and convent) for $10,000. Name it for your favorite saint, in your loved one's memory.
