Outdoor Mass for Peace Slated

Highland Park Bowl will be the setting of a Mass for Peace, celebrated by Bishop Joseph L. Hogan, Sunday, Oct. 11 at 3 p.m.

People of all faiths have been invited to the liturgy billed as an opportunity to express a desire for peace for people to whom rallies and marches and typical demonstrations do not appeal.

Music for the Mass will be led by the combined choirs of Immaculate Conception Church and St. Bernard's Seminary.

Since Highland Bowl has no formal seating fixtures, it is recommended those attending the Mass bring their own blankets and folding chairs.

Fourth Degree Officers Named

Paul G. Rombaut has been appointed master of the fifth district, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus. The district comprises the diocese of Rochester.

Rombaut, past grand knight of Our Lady of the Cenacle Council 3892 of Greece, is a member of Our Lady of Mercy parish where he is chairman of the liturgy committee. For several years he was state chairman of the Knights of Columbus oratorical contest.

PAUL ROMBAUT

The new master has announced plans for an exemplification of the degree shortly after Easter of 1971.

Also appointed to offices were Robert Farrell as marshal, and Jeremiah O'Connor, captain of the color corps. Farrell is a past grand knight of Rochester Council 178 and O'Connor is a member of Our Lady of the Cenacle Council.
