Fr. Meloche to Address CFM Meeting Oct. 15

Father Arthur Meloche, the widely-known Canadian lecturer, will speak in Gates-Chili High School Auditorium on Oct. 15 at 8 p.m. His topic, "Divorce vs. Lasting Love," is the second of a three-part series on "Marriage Today," sponsored by St. Christopher's Christian Family Movement.

In July 1968 he was appointed national moderator of that organization.

Noted for his dynamic delivery and his keen insight into the problems of married life, Father Meloche has conducted Cana Conferences and preached Married Couples Retreats for 15 years. He presented a weekly series of Family Life talks on television for two years and radio for ten years.

He lectured in "Theology of Marriage" at the University of Detroit for nine years and in the "Philosophy of Marriage" at Kings' College in London, Ontario for two years. He has also guest-lectured on family life at many colleges and universities, including St. John Fisher College, the University of Notre Dame and St. Michaels' College, Toronto.

Father Meloche will emphasize in this lecture the positive aspects of married life, and tell
