Kearney Carnival Kickoff

This morning in an assembly at Bishop Kearney High School, Mayor Stephen May and Joseph Ferrari, president of the Monroe County Legislature, officially proclaimed this "Kearney Week".

The week-long activities, which opened with an outdoor Mass followed by a Continental Breakfast last Sunday, are sponsored by the Fathers' and Mothers' clubs. A four-day Kearney Carnival opens tomorrow and extends through Sunday in an attempt to raise funds to improve school facilities without a sharp tuition increase.

The Carnival opens each day at 5 p.m. and features amusement rides, concessions, and refreshments. A Fire and Police Demonstration is scheduled for Thursday and a "Ride All Saturday Afternoon" special will be followed by an evening parade. Dinner will be served each evening in the school cafeteria from 5 to 7.

Dr. Simon To Speak To Teachers

Dr. Sidney B. Simon, nationally known educator and professor in the Center for Humanistic Education at the University of Massachusetts, will deliver three presentations to diocesan teachers Oct. 18-20.

Dr. Simon's address on Values will be presented Sunday Oct. 18 at 7:15 p.m. in St. Agnes High School Auditorium.

He will conduct all-day workshops for Catholic school teachers at Bishop Kearney High School, Monday, Oct. 19, and at the Marian Center, Elmira, Tuesday, Oct. 20.

Scholarship Bids Sought

Knights of Columbus councils throughout the Rochester Diocese are now seeking applications for the state K. of C. college scholarship program.

The state K. of C. annually offers 38 scholarships in the amount of $42,400. They are open to any Catholic graduate of a recognized high school in New York State during the term ending January or June 1971.

Candidates must file not later than Oct. 31 and submit to a college entrance exam in December. Winners may use the scholarships at any Catholic college in the nation which has the approval of the committee.

CCD Offers Teach-In

A "Come to the Father" teach-in will be conducted by Father Kevin Lynch and Sister Sheila Kennerson of the Paulist Press, Saturday, Oct. 10, at Blessed Sacrament School, 10:30 a.m.-4 p.m. The sessions will offer service-aid to teachers of grades 1-6. A fee of $2 is charged for box lunch and coffee.

The same program will be offered Sunday Oct. 11 at St. Mary our Mother, Horseheads, 2-8 p.m. The fee includes the cost of a supper.

For reservations call the CCD office: (716) 454-3650.
