

Dr. Simon to Speak Here

Dr. Sidney Simon, nationally known educator, and lecturer in the field of human values, will address teachers and other interested persons in the Rochester Diocese in a series of discussions and workshops, slated Oct. 18-20.

Dr. Simon's first presentation on values will be given Sunday, Oct. 18 at 7:15 p.m. in St. Agnes High School Auditorium, 300 E. River Rd., Rochester.

He will also conduct all-day workshops for teachers at Bishop Kearney High School, Rochester, on Monday, Oct. 19 and at the Marian Center, Elmira, Tuesday, Oct. 20.

Seminars Set On Priesthood

Project Leadership, whose purpose is to help those interested in the priesthood as a vocation, has scheduled three one-day seminars in three diocesan sites.

Topics such as peace, social justice and development of man and his world will be on the agenda for high schoolers interested in roles of leadership in tomorrow's Church.

The first seminar will be Saturday, Oct. 24 at Beckett Hall, 75 Fairport Road, East Rochester; the second at St. Mary's School, 17 Clymer St., Auburn; and the third at Notre Dame High School, 1400 Maple St., Elmira. Each will begin at 9:30 a.m.
