SENATOR POWERS REVIEWS HIS RECORD

Having cast over 8,000 votes as your Senator, I'm sure we were not in agreement 8,000 times. But you can be assured that your views were always given careful consideration by me.

My record includes support for the following measures:

- II REMOVAL OF REGENT SCHOLARSHIPS FOR STUDENTS GUILTY OF CRIMES ON CAMPUS
- III THE FAIR TEXTBOOK AID BILL
- IV LIFE IMPRISONMENT FOR DRUG PUSHERS
- V SPENO-LERNER BILL (This bill did not reach the Senate floor, but we did grant, and I supported, $28 million aid for non-public schools)
- VI INCREASED PENALTIES FOR POLLUTERS
- VII RESTRICTION OF PORNOGRAPHIC LITERATURE

I hope you will continue to write, phone, or personally visit with me whenever I can be of service to you.

REVEREND MONSIGNOR EDWARD T. O'MEARA
NATIONAL DIRECTOR

Now That It's Over

Mission Sunday has come and gone. For many it may have been just an appeal day for money. And it was—money is desperately vital for the missions.

Missionaries cannot be trained and sent to Africa, Asia, or Latin America on good will alone. Hungry people cannot be comforted on sweet talk; food and clothes cost money. People with diseases need medicine, clinics, hospitals, and trained medical people. Illiteracy can only be reduced when schools, supplies, and teachers are provided. People finding Christ need priests, places to worship, and local seminaries and convents. Relief from poor sanitation, poor environments, and inhuman conditions all require money.

It's true! Missionary activity necessarily is involved in economics. Even more true—for many missionaries, their only source of income is the generous support from their fellow-Christians. Christ—in and through the Church, the missionaries, and the people they serve—depends on us.

But Mission Sunday was more than just giving money, otherwise it only scratched the surface of our personal sense of Christian living. Think for a minute . . . We have been baptized, confirmed, and partakers together at Christ's table . . . we profess the communion of saints, and membership in God's people—the catholic-apostolic Church. We all share in Christ's mission, not as outside benefactors or isolated humanitarians.

A frightful meditation—the spirit of Christ is alive in us only to the degree we have His missionary sense.

It is a sense of belonging to others: those we live with and those we don't. It is a sense of serving others: the immediate family and the world family. It is a sense that responds out of love for others and doesn't count the cost. And it is the sense of our togetherness with each other in God.

Over 800 mission territories receive direct aid from the Society; many are totally dependent on this support. They need what only you can give. Mission Sunday 1970 has come and gone, but our love, our concern, our giving must go on all year. For in liturgy and in life we celebrate the mystery of our faith—Christ lives among us . . . HELP US TELL THE WORLD! Will you send a sacrifice, to me, today for the missions?
