

Mooney Students Help in Clean-up

Students from Cardinal Mooney High School watch as Richard Simpson, McCurdy's special events director, weighs a bundle of trash they collected during the recent "Teens vs.

Trash" campaign. The one-day clean-up event, sponsored by McCurdy's Teen Board, netted nearly 7½ tons of trash, collected by student teams from 18 area schools. Cardinal

Mooney workers turned in 1,554 pounds. Plastic sacks were donated by the Robfogel Mill-Andrews Corp., and the Rochester Department of Public Works picked up the trash at Midtown Plaza for disposal.

Bible Series Set At St. Lawrence

"The Bible in Perspective" is the general topic for an adult education workshop at the St. Lawrence School library, 1013 North Greece Road.

Father Sebastian Falcone, OFM, Cap., will conduct the series at 7:30 on the first three Sunday evenings of November.

On Nov. 1, the Old Testament will be discussed as a record of God's saving concern for his people. On Nov. 8, Father Falcone will talk about the development of understanding in Jesus' followers. The Nov. 15 session will be devoted to the social emphasis of Christ's public ministry, as reflected in the gospels.

CYO Grade School Schedules Changed

As a convenience for families, the CYO after-school program has been reorganized so that boys' and girls' classes are held on the same days.

Activities begin at 4 p.m. Tuesdays and Fridays. They include gym, games and swimming, for children aged six through 13. There is also a Saturday program for ages five through 14. Complete schedules may be obtained at the CYO, 50 Chestnut, telephone 454-2030.

Kearney Debaters Capture Trophy
