

Father Lawrence V. Murphy, diocesan director of vocations, chats with some of more than 30 youngsters at recent workshop in Becket Hall. Open to high school boys interested in the priesthood or in Christian leadership as possible vocations, the workshops are sponsored by the Diocesan Vocation Committee. Another was conducted recently in Auburn, and a third is slated at Notre Dame High School, Elmira, from 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 7. Pictured from left are Michael Sullivan, St. Mary's parish, Elmira; Michael Malerk, St. Augustine's, Rochester; George Hoh, St. Paul's Honeye Falls; Paul Zimmerman, Our Lady of Good Counsel, Rochester, and Harry Boyer, St. Jude's Spencerport.

Josephite Brother Gets Parish Duty

Brother Louis de Monfort, SSJ., is one of 18 young men in various religious orders deputized to assist priests of the diocese of Wilmington, Del., in distributing Communion.

Brother Louis, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tomasso of Kestrel Street, Rochester, took his final vows in the Josephite Society last year. He is a graduate of Holy Rosary School and Aquinas Institute.
