

Greece Parish to Elect Council

The people of St. John the Evangelist Church in Greece, setting up a parish council, will elect 10 members this weekend from among 24 candidates. The under-21 group will have one representative, elected from among four nominees.

Ballots may be left at church Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 12 and 13, or delivered to the rectory no later than 8 p.m. Sunday.

Also, Joseph Gehl, Howard Prentice, Lawrence Danahey, Albert Walz, Denise Toombs, Thomas Waters, Robert Wallace, Dale Sisman, seated.

Nominated for Naval Academy

Richard E. Skiba, an Aquinas Institute senior, has been nominated for the U.S. Naval Academy by Rep. Frank Horton, R-36.

Skiba is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Skiba of 31 Wakefield St., Rochester, and is one of nine Monroe and Wayne County students nominated for the academy by Horton.

They will undergo Naval Academy examinations and the best qualified will be chosen by the Navy.

Thanksgiving Rite At Holy Ghost

Two little "pilgrims" led the offertory procession Thanksgiving Day at Holy Ghost Church.

Third graders Karen Sedita and James Nothnagle wore costumes associated with the first Thanksgiving, and others in the procession carried traditional holiday food and a basket of thank-you notes composed by pupils in the upper grades. The Holy Ghost school Combo led the singing.

Art Auction Set For Bomed Temple

The Sisterhood of Light of Israel Temple has scheduled an art auction for Saturday, Dec. 12, to raise money for repairing dynamite damage to the temple.

Paintings and prints to be sold by the Emerging Arts Gallery of New York City will be on exhibit at 7:30 p.m., an hour before the auction begins, at 206 Norton.

St. Lucy's Church

The feast of St. Lucy, patroness of the eyes, will be commemorated by a special Mass in her honor at St. Lucy's Church on Sunday, Dec. 13 at 4 p.m.

Following the Mass, special novena prayers will be said and eyes will be blessed with the relic of St. Lucy. The public is invited to attend.

ROCHESTER RADIO SUPPLY CO. INC.

ROCHESTER OWNED AND OPERATED FOR OVER 35 YEARS

Is your family safe from intruders, prowlers, vandals?

Not just locked-door, closed-window safe.

But safe behind an electronic curtain of unavoidable electronic waves... silent sound. The CRIME ALERT® intrusion alarm way.

Even the slightest movement by anyone or anything triggers its shrieking sound. Floodlights go on, a siren roars, bells clang... anything you attach to its accessory outlet.

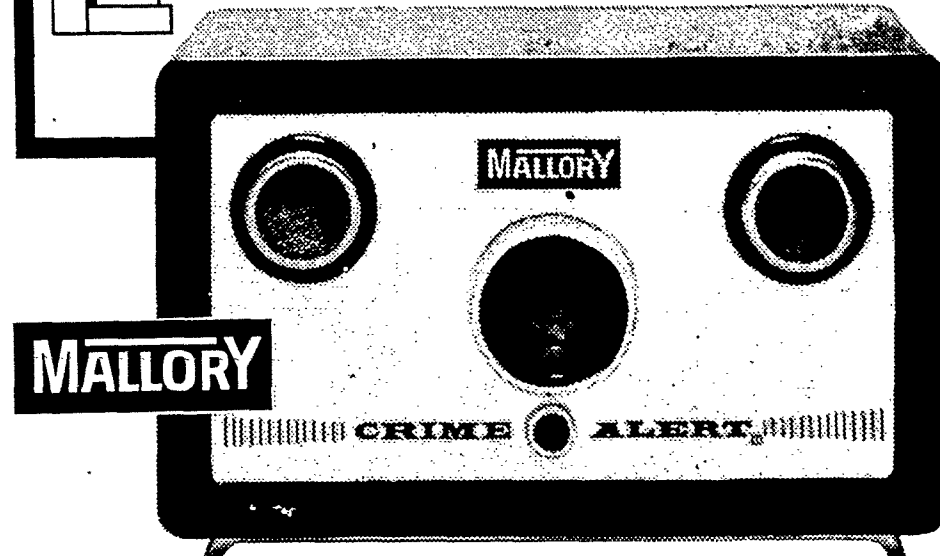

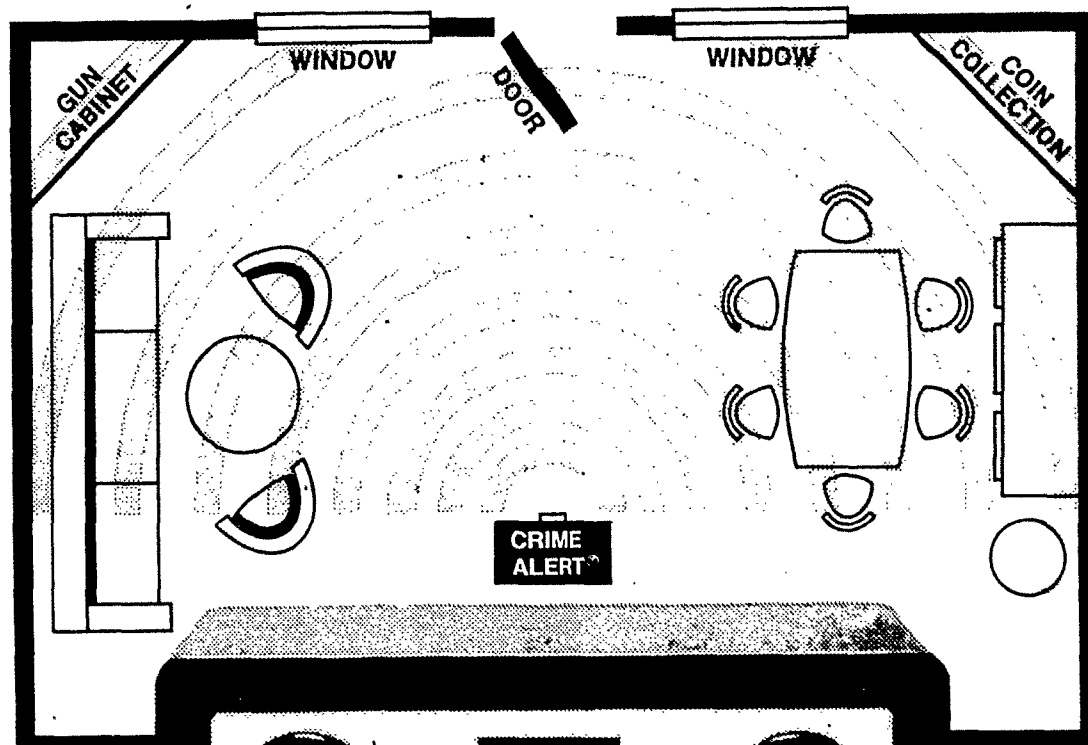

That means not just a door or window is rigged. But everything in the coverage area... halls, stairways, foyers. Even the floor and ceiling.

And it's solid-state compact and dependable... about the size of a clock-radio.

Installation? Simplicity itself... just plug it in. And it's adjustable to cover up to 200 square feet.

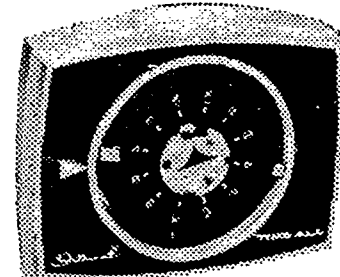

To see how safe you can be, stop in at your Mallory dealer's security center. Our silent sound is bad news for prowlers.
