Moravia Children Show Their Thanks

Moravia — The sanctuary of St. Patrick's Church on Thanksgiving Day was heaped with "gifts" that the children of the parish gave thanks for.

First graders brought their toy animals — "all God's creatures." Fruits and vegetables of the autumn harvest were carried in by the eighth grade pupils, and the seventh grade brought a model of a church to show their thanks "for our communication with God."

Others in the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine program carried posters in the procession that preceded Mass. Fifty boys and girls and five teachers took part, presenting the gifts to Father William Gaynor, Barbara Murphy and Doug Dunham of the high school CCD division, served as lectors.

Gallons of Money For the Missions

Seneca Falls — How many pennies in two gallons? About 10,550.

At St. Patrick's School, the 24 eighth graders in Sister St. Benedict's homeroom saved pennies in two gallon jars for five weeks, in team competition. With the overflow, the pennies amounted to $139.88, all for the missions.

Church Receives Memorial Gift

Scipio Center — New altar linens, in memory of Mrs. Esther Connell, have been given to St. Bernard's Church by the Altar and Rosary Society of which she was president many times.

The linens, hand made by the cloistered Dominican Sisters of the Perpetual Rosary in Elmira, were blessed by Father Daniel V. Hogan Nov. 29 at a memorial Mass for Mrs. Connell.
