Teen Board Assists Operation Morale

Members of McCurdy's Teen Board this year packed over 50 Christmas parcels for area servicemen in Vietnam as part of the Operation Morale program.

According to Miss Joan Spadaro, McCurdy's Youth Coordinator, each girl was asked to fill one 5-pound package with soft drink mixes, homemade cookies and brownies, hard candy, paperback books, stationery, pens, and other small gifts of use to servicemen. Each girl then wrote a personal letter to the GI who will receive her package, and contributed the $1.10 postage necessary to mail the parcel to Vietnam.

The Teen Board is composed of 41 girls representing 32 area high schools whose purpose is to contribute volunteer services to worthwhile community projects.

Vital Statistics Consolidated

As part of the consolidation of vital statistics, all birth and death certificates issued prior to July 1, 1968, by the Towns of Riga and Wheatland and the Villages of Churchville and Scottsville have been transferred to the Monroe County Department of Health.

Dr. Margaret L. Rathbun, deputy county health director, said this means that certified copies of those birth and death records must be obtained from the Health Department's Office of Vital Statistics. Copies may be secured either by writing to or visiting the office at 11 Westfall Road. The charge of $2 per record is the same as before.

Mooney Students To Entertain Aged

Students of Cardinal Mooney High School's Action For People Association (AFPA) will entertain senior citizens from Greece in the Mooney Auditorium Sunday, Dec. 13, 2-4 p.m.

Billed as a "special program of Christmas joy", the afternoon will include the music of the Mooney band and chorus, and the magic of Dante, as well as the home-ec department's menu of cookies and punch.

The senior citizens will also be visited by Santa Claus and his pile of presents.

Chairman of the party is Irene Shanto. Committee heads are: Barbara Niven, transportation; Marcia Kehm, decorations; Michele Iacuzzo, refreshments; Deborah Peters, entertainment; and Patricia Slyck, student organization.
