Seminary Retreat

Held at Monastery

Waverly — Twenty-five second-year seminarians from St. Bernard's made a retreat at the Carmelite Monastery here, preparing for the rite of tonsure which was celebrated Dec. 3 at the seminary.

They were accompanied by their spiritual director, Father William Trott. Father Edwin B. Metzger, director of field education at St. Bernard's was principal celebrant of the first Mass.

"The Carmelite friars shared as they could in the retreat," Father Cyril Guise, the superior said. "Each evening each man spoke up on the day's topic, offering to the others the fruit of his day's meditation. These sessions ran for several hours, closing with an evening prayer, a sort of homemade Compline in the monastery tradition, and then informal song."
