CYO mini-swimmers: (l-r) Jeannie McDermott, Kathleen Flannery, Chris Gleichauf, Kathy Smith, Julie Schmidt, Colleen Smith and Coach Bill West recently set records at Olympia Invitational Meet.

New Records Set In School Bowling

By TOM O'NEILL

Aquinas bowlers took eight points from Bishop Kearney Dec. 17 and chalked up two new team records in the Catholic inter-high league.

Mooney, leading the chase for the trophy that Aquinas has kept since the first league season, took six of the eight points at stake in its contest with McQuaid. The Card's lead in the top spot was shaved to six points over Aquinas in second.

The Aquinas team single of 770 and team total of 2242 set records. Pat Guiliano rolled a 657 series scratch, to move into second place behind Mooney's Lyle Beach in the individual series category. Guiliano's team mate Pete MacCracken made 604, and Beach scored 576. Guiliano, Beach and Kearney's J. Cerani each had a 232.

All CYO Titles 'Up for Grabs'

This Sunday the CYO Basketball League will swing back into action after a break for the holidays.

After four weeks of competition the strong teams in the Elementary League appear to be St. Bridget, St. Thomas Apostle, Christ the King and Holy Ghost, all with undefeated records.

The undefeated teams in the High School League are: St. John's—City, Christ the King, St. Monica, St. Charles and St. Pius X.
