

Christian-Moslem Amity Noted

Algiers — (RNS) — Leon-Etienne Cardinal Duval, Archbishop of Algiers, has called in Christians and Moslems to work together to defend and promote human welfare.

In a New Year's message, the prelate pointed out that Moslems and Christians have "common religious feelings," and should be aware that their "sincere and working friendship" represented great hopes for unity.

Algiers is 99 per cent Moslem.

Tax Levied on Self-Styled 'Pope'

Nancy, France — (RNS) — The former priest who calls himself "Pope Clement XV" has "excommunicated" a local tax official who ordered his anti-Vatican sect to pay $50,000 in taxes.

Michael Collin, alias Pope Clement, said he condemned the tax collector for "crying injustices, lies, threats and claims of non-existent revenues." He appealed to French President Georges Pompidou to cancel the taxes levied against his sect.

Collin, well-known in the Nancy area, maintains luxurious apartments and rides in a limousine dressed in a white soutane. He is usually accompanied by several of his "cardinals," one of whom is his chauffeur.

Spanish Priest Held as Communist

Madrid — (RNS) — A Spanish priest, accused of being a member of the Communist Party, was arrested at Cartagena in southern Spain and charged with implication in anti-government activities.

According to a report in the government-sponsored daily, Arriba, Father Avelino Fernandez Lucas, 26, a member of the Sacred Heart Fathers, concealed a large hoard of Spanish Communist literature in his house. It included so-called propoganda materials of the illegal Communist group known as the Juvenile Workers and Social Workers Vanguard. Six other members of the Vanguard were arrested with the priest.

Cub Scout Helpers To Celebrate 25th Anniversary

Holy Rosary people who have worked with Cub Scout Pack 101 during the past quarter-century will get together for dinner at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 23, at Aquinas Institute.

The anniversary committee has sent out 120 invitations, but lacks addresses for some of the former committeemen and den mothers. Any who did not receive invitations are asked to make reservations by Jan. 20 with Mrs. Lillian Salber, 458-8939.
