Grant to Aid Steuben County Drug Unit

Gov. Rockefeller has announced that the State Narcotic Addiction Control Commission (NACC) has approved a grant of $15,000 to the Steuben County Narcotic Guidance Council to establish a program on drug abuse for adolescents, 16 years of age and younger.

The program, with headquarters in Corning, is sponsored by the Steuben County Board of Supervisors.

The Steuben Narcotic Guidance Council plans to establish a countywide narcotic program consisting of inpatient medical and psychiatric treatment, intensive education-prevention training and outreach services, including counseling, referrals and a hotline or crisis telephone answering service.

Five medical facilities will offer emergency room services and short term inpatient treatment — Steuben County Mental Health Services and Clinic in Bath, Ira Davenport Hospital in Bath, Corning Hospital in Corning, St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell, and Bethesda Hospital in Hornell.

Mrs. J. Howard Ferguson (739-5564) and Mrs. Francis Preston are co-chairmen of the membership tea, and invitations will be under the direction of Mrs. John Dunn.

ANTI-POLLUTION

Horseheads — Parishioners of St. Mary Our Mother Church have been asked to participate in an anti-pollution drive involving glass.

The Richard Guirey family initiated a program of collecting non-returnable bottles, jars and glass of any sort. They have asked parishioners to bring the bottles to the parish hall on Thursday nights. The glass will be sold to Thatcher Glass Co., who will reclaim component elements.
