

Mahns Represents State's Scouts At Capitol

Eagle Scout Daniel R. Mahns, an Aquinas senior, reported to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller Monday as a representative of 350,000 Boy Scouts and their leaders in New York State.

A ceremony in the governor's office followed a luncheon marking the 61st anniversary of the organization. Through a series of speaking contests, Mahns had been chosen to deliver the 1970 scouting report.

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Mahns of Clay Avenue and a parishioner of Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Poetry, Essay Contest Slated

Court Our Lady of the Cenacle 1139, Catholic Daughters of America in Rochester, will sponsor participation in the 1971 CDA national, state and local poetry and essay contest.

Invitations have been sent to students of Nazareth, and St. John Fisher colleges, seven high schools and 44 parochial elementary schools.

Essays or poetry on religious or patriotic themes will be welcomed from college and high school students, and poems from elementary pupils from the fourth to eighth grades.

Winning selections in the area will be entered in the statewide contest. Information may be obtained from the court's educational committee chairman, Mrs. Cletus Schum, 805 Fernwood Park.

Hairdressers Plan School Benefit

The local celebration of National Beauty Salon Week will be a money raiser for the School of the Holy Childhood.

The Rochester Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association invites the public to a hairstyle show and "Night in Las Vegas" at 8 p.m. Monday, Feb. 15 in the Mapledale Party House; donation, one dollar. The Musicians Association will supply music, and the highlight of the evening will be the crowning of "Miss Cosmetology, 1971." Dee Gallo is chairman.
