

Priest Writes Service for Firefighters

An alumnus of St. Bernard's Seminary—who is a pastor in the Ogdensburg Diocese—has composed and copyrighted a "Memorial Service for Departed Firemen."

He is Msgr. Robert J. McCarthy, pastor of St. James Church, Gouverneur, in St. Lawrence County, a member of the 1946 class at St. Bernard's. Msgr. McCarthy recently was named chaplain of the Firemen's Association of the State of New York.

The four-page pamphlet containing ecumenical prayers for deceased firemen will be made available to fire departments throughout the state. Copies may be obtained from the Old Forge Publishing Co., Crosby Boulevard, Old Forge 13420.

NCCW Program Set at Cenacle

Fashion Me a Person, an institute staffed by the National Council of Catholic Women designed to stimulate the leadership potential of women, is slated for March 6-7, 10-11 and 13-14, at the Cenacle Retreat House, 693 East Ave., Rochester.

The program is under the general sponsorship of the Diocese of Rochester and has received the endorsement of Bishop Joseph L. Hogan.

According to Mrs. Arvid Lakeberg, co-chairman of the Rochester program, the institute, while offered primarily to Catholic women in the diocese, has an ecumenical orientation.

The diocese has offered pastors who are not financially able to send representatives to the institute the $30 registration fee.

Cancer Program Set for Greece

A nurse and a doctor from the University of Rochester Medical School will present a cancer information program for women at 7:30 tomorrow night, Thursday, in Greece Olympia High School.

Mrs. Barbara Humphrey, R.N., and Dr. Mary Sears will show films and answer questions on preast-uterine cancer.

Next Thursday, Feb. 25, at 7:30, Dr. James P. Fleming, a colon-rectal surgeon, will conduct a similar program for both men and women in the Greece school. The two sessions, planned by the county unit of the American Cancer Society with the cooperation of the adult education division in Greece District 1, are open to the public.

NATIVITY PARISH SETS BIBLE PROGRAM

Brockport — Parishioners of the Church of the Nativity have been invited to participate in a Lenten Scriptural discussion scheduled once weekly in the school hall.

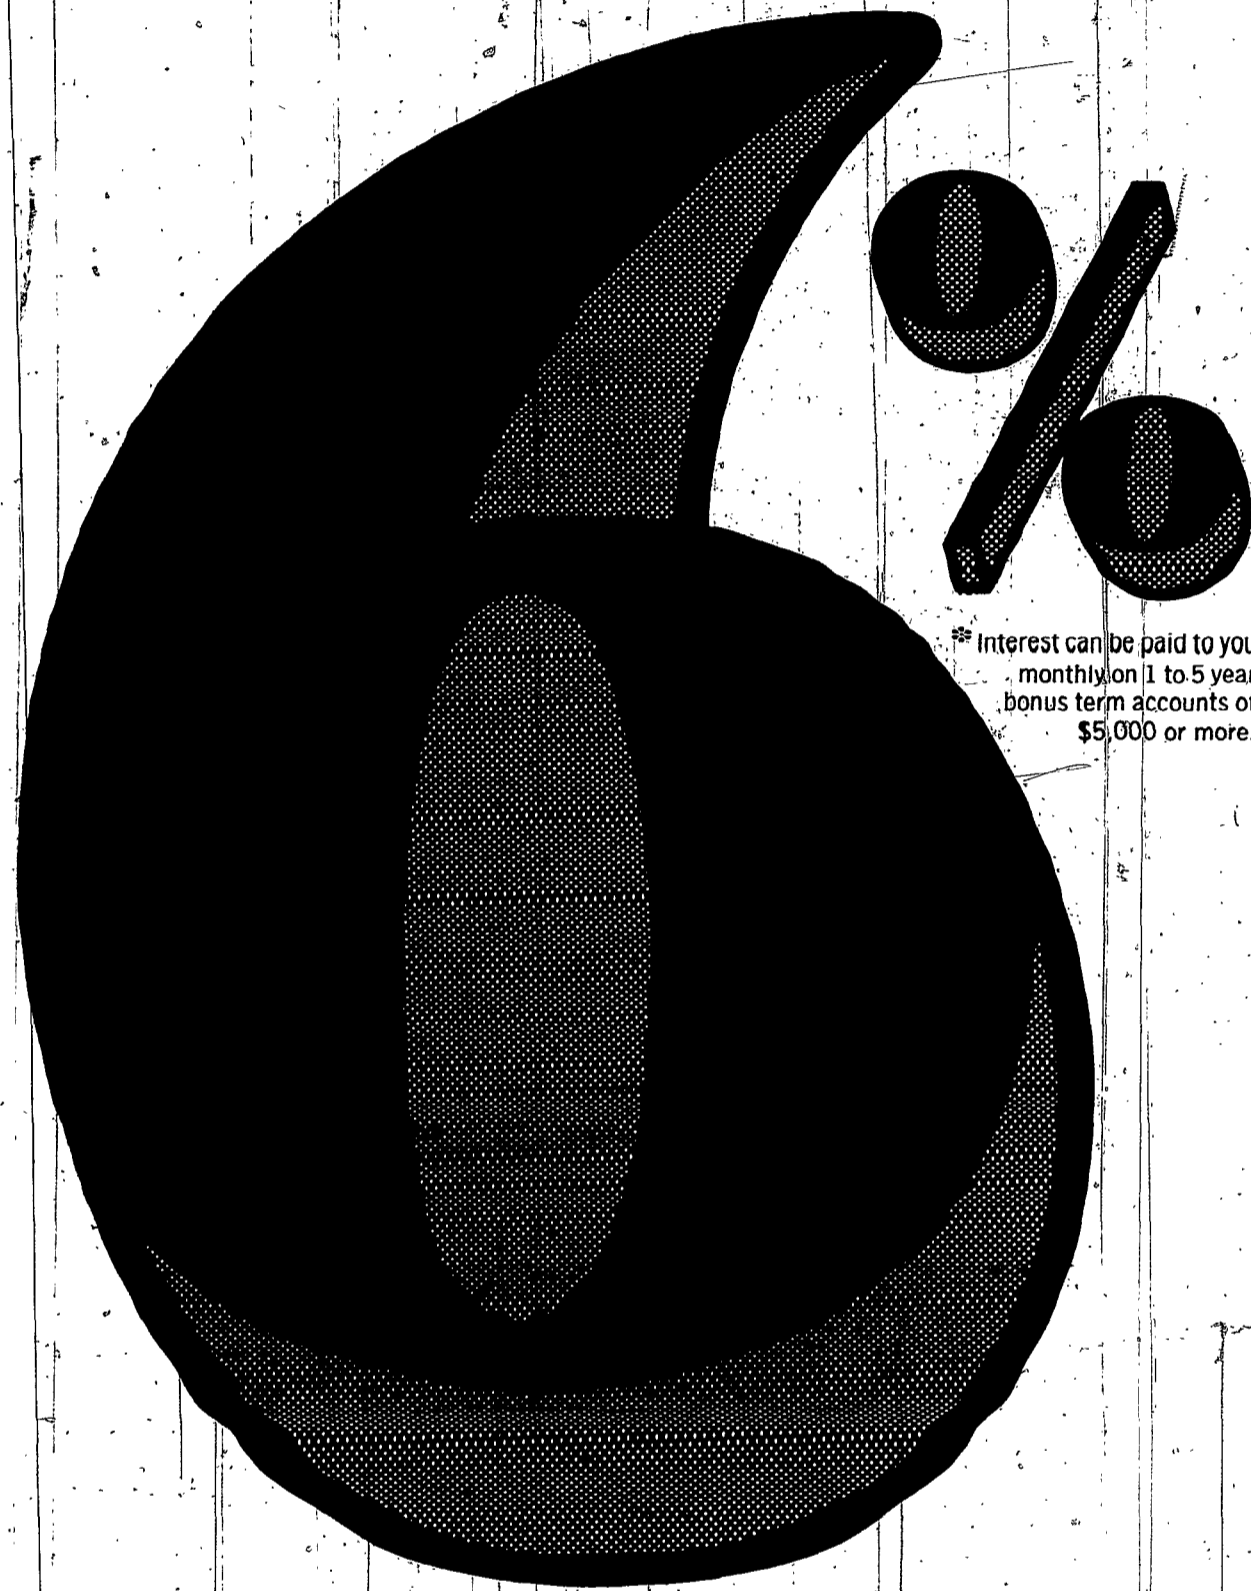

Theme of the program will be the Gospel according to St. John. After a short talk by one of the priests, participants will break into small groups. The program will begin Thursday Mar. 4.

PASCHAL DINNER

The Paschal dinner at Sacred Heart Cathedral, an annual event will take place Monday, March 8, at 6:30 p.m. Tickets will be sold this weekend and next, after Saturday night and Sunday Masses. From March 1-4, reservations may be made with Mrs. William Smith, 254-5345. Mrs. Richard Mahns is chairman.
