College Fund Sets Record

The United Negro College Fund in Rochester raised a record $141,300 in 1970, William F. Webber, out-going chairman, reported last week.

Saluting corporate and individual contributors, Webber thanked Loftus Carson, executive director of the Monroe County Human Relations Commission, for his efforts in the black community, where an informal dance raised $2,012.81 for the fund.

The UNCF provides aid for 36 private and fully accredited predominantly Negro colleges and universities.
