Married Couples Retreat Slated

A new marriage-assist called "Marriage Encounter" will be held at the Cenacle Retreat House during the weekend of March 19-21 "for married people who have a good marriage and wish to make it better."

Directed by Father Robert Collins, diocesan director of the Office of Family Life, and three couples who have made an earlier Encounter, the weekend will offer married persons an opportunity to renew their basic commitment to their spouses.

Billed as a training course in communication of feelings in married life, but not a "sensitivity session," the encounter team encourages participants to question and evaluate their relationship through group and private dialogue.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Monahan, 340 Hilbert Place, East Rochester (658-8464) are handling registration. Only 12 couples can be accommodated.

Keeping Tabs

The Holy Name of Mary Society of St. Stanislaus Parish will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday, March 9 at 8 p.m. in the school hall. Featured speaker will be Miss Agnes Damion of the Blue Army who will show films on the sorrowful mysteries of the Rosary.

St. Charles Borromeo Women's Club will have an evening of recollection Thursday, March 4, beginning with 7:30 Mass. Father Louis Hohman, rector of Becket Hall, will be the speaker. A retreat for women of the parish is scheduled for March 26-28, at the Cenacle. Eileen Callan is taking reservations at 621-2006.

An afternoon of recollection will be held at St. Mary's, Scottsville, from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday, March 14, for the women and older girls of the parish. Father Lawrence Murphy will direct the meditations.

Spring fashions from McCurdy's will be shown in a garden setting in the McQuaid auditorium, at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 9. The McQuaid Mothers Club committee is headed by Mrs. Thomas O'Connor and Mrs. Russell Gugino. Hostesses at the refreshment tables will be sisters of the students.

A staff home economist from Rochester Gas & Electric will be the speaker at the St. James Rosary Society meeting, Monday, March 8, after 8:15 p.m. church services.

The Holy Family Rosary Society meeting Wednesday night, March 10, will be preceded by Stations of the Cross and Benediction at 7:45 p.m.

March 8 is the deadline for Holy Ghost women to make reservations for an evening at the Cenacle Retreat House March 16, under the auspices of the Sacred Heart Society of the parish. Contacts are Mrs. Leo Entress, 235-0324, and Mrs. Al Friday, 889-2185.

The Catholic Mission Guild will meet at 1 p.m. next Wednesday, March 10, at 513 Monroe.

"Your Daughter's Future" will be Father George S. Wood's topic at a Mother of Sorrows Home-School meeting March 7, at 7:30 p.m.

The Archconfraternity of the Holy Family of St. Joseph's Church will receive Holy Communion at the 9 a.m. Mass on Sunday, March 7. Breakfast, conference and meeting in the school cafeteria will follow the Mass.

William Finn Named Rochester Postmaster

William E. Finn has been appointed as the first Postmaster of Rochester under the reorganized United States Postal Service. The appointment is not subject to Senate confirmation. His nomination came from the New York Regional Management Selection Board.

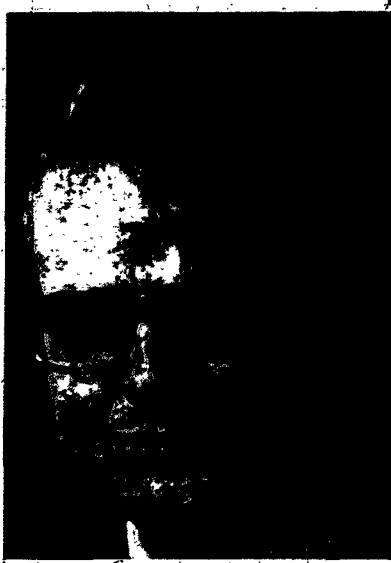

The new Postmaster began his postal career as a substitute clerk in 1946 after discharge from the Army. His first promotion to supervisory rank was in October 1954. Thereafter Finn served as foreman of mails, superintendent of delivery and collection, general superintendent of mails and a number of intermediate posts until his latest appointment.

Finn is active in Rotary, Chamber of Commerce, Federal Executives Association, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Mail Users Council, National Association of Postal Supervisors and Postmasters, and is a Vice Pres-
