

The Flowers of Vietnam Children in the War-Zone

"You deal here above all with human life; and human life is sacred; no one may dare offend against it." — Pope Paul VI, address to the United Nations, October 4, 1965.

"Whoever reflects upon the lessons which past history teaches us will proceed at once to declare that a return to war, to struggle, to massacre, to the ruins caused by the psychology of conflicting arms and forces, even to the death of men who are citizens of the earth, the common fatherland of our life in time, that such a return is absurd."

—Pope Paul VI, January 5, 1969
