

COURIER TO FOCUS ON ELMIRA

THROUGH Dick Baumbach

In an effort to provide better news coverage of the Elmira area, the Courier-Journal has added Dick Baumbach as its Elmira correspondent.

Currently governmental reporter with the Star Gazette, Baumbach also has done investigative reporting for the paper since he joined its staff 18 months ago.

Baumbach has had work published in Sports Illustrated and has an extensive background in the news business. He has been an editorial assistant for the American Broadcasting Company, senior information specialist for the Army (while stationed in Korea), assisting managing editor of the Topics Newspapers of Indianapolis, Ind., and news editor of the Greenfield (Ind.) Daily Reporter before coming to Elmira. He is a native of New York City.

Among the more interesting assignments Baumbach has covered since breaking into the business in 1962, was coverage of the 1964 Republican National Convention in San Francisco for ABC, and a 1966 interview with Richard Nixon in Korea.

But all the family fame does not belong to Dick. His wife, Diane, a registered nurse, has the distinction of being the first spouse of an enlisted man to live in Korea in 17 years (since the end of the war there).

They have one child, Douglas, 3.

If you have news for the Courier give Dick Baumbach a call.
