Rev. Mr. Leone, Father Charbonneau, Rev. Mr. Koester

Boys' Camp Director Named for Stella Maris

William B. Leone has been named director of the boys' camp at Stella Maris, a resident camp for boys and girls on Conesus Lake.

Leone graduated from Aquinas Institute and St. John Fisher College and is completing his second year at St. Bernard's Seminary. This will be his third year on the staff at Camp Stella Maris.

Leone has chosen as his assistant director, Thomas Koester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koester, 138 W. Ivy St., East

Rochester. Koester is an alumnus of East Rochester High School and Wadhams Hall, Ogdensburg.

"Registrations are now being accepted at the camp office, 50 Chestnut St., Rochester. We hope that the boys and girls send their registrations in as soon as possible, so they will get the weeks of their choice," Leone said.

He is the oldest of six sons of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Leone, 436 Hinckley Road.

Presbyterians Slate Meet Here

The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church will meet in Rochester's War Memorial Auditorium on May 17-26. This year's Assembly will be the 183rd of the Presbyterians' highest policy-making body, and the third to meet in Rochester.

Delegates will grapple with many of the same evils they faced the last time the Assem-

CYO ORGANIZING NEW TENNIS CLASS

The CYO will start a second series of tennis lessons next Wednesday, April 28, from 7 to 8 p.m. The six week course will be taught by Mrs. Ann Nealon, former city champion. Class size will be limited and registration can be made at the CYO, 50 Chestnut, 454-2030.

Honors Come To Pair

By John Doser

One of the greatest honors for an area high school basketball player is to be named to the Greater Rochester All-Stars as determined by coaches and released by The Democrat & Chronicle and The Times-Union, Rochester daily newspapers.

Mike Goonan of Bishop Kearney and Joe Crisanti of Geneva DeSales represent Diocesan schools on the 1970-71 dream team.

Dan Panaggio of Cardinal Mooney and Tom Heil and Brady Spetz of Aquinas were named honorable mention.

Goonan is a 6-5, 195-pound center who averaged 19.2 points per game for coach Carmen Urzetta's Kearney Kings.

He also broke many school scoring records including most points (390) a season and in a career (642).

His talents aren't limited to basketball; he also played football and baseball at BK; he's a B-plus student and has been accepted at St. John Fisher College (which must make athletic director-basketball coach Bobby Wanzer very happy).

His 19.2 average was third best in the Rochester City-Catholic League and he hit 20 points or better in 10 different games including one stretch of seven in a row.

Mike is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goonan of 2556 Oakview Drive, Rochester.

ONE OF TWO juniors on the GRA Squad is DeSales' Joe Crisanti.

A 6-3, 205 pound center, Crisanti averaged 14.2 points and 16 rebounds per game to lead coach Jim Dolgos' Saints to their first Diocesan Tournament championship as well as best season ever, (17-2).

Crisanti, who also was a Diocesan All-Tournament choice, set two DeSales records this season with 30 grabs in one ballgame and 14 blocked shots

(he did the blocking) in another.

What Joe lacks in height in comparison to other centers, he makes up in strength. When he gets his hands on the ball, according to his coach, he never lets go. He has long arms which makes scoring not difficult even if he's boxed out by an opponent.

Joe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Crisanti, 11 State St., Geneva.

UNLESS HE retires at age 16, Mooney's Dan Panaggio is almost a sure-fire bet to make the dream team next season.

Panaggio averaged 20.84 points per game for the Cardinals and was second in City-Catholic League scoring.
