Nursing Home Hears Mass

The new Westgate Nursing Home in Spencerport, through the efforts of St. Theodore's Legion of Mary, now has regularly scheduled Masses for better than 50 patients, many of them confined to wheelchairs or using walkers.

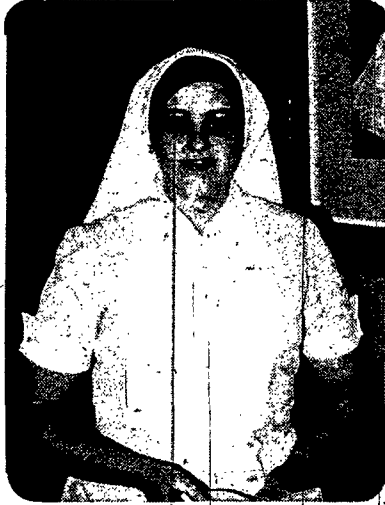

Father James A. Swartz of St. Theodore's Church was the first to celebrate Mass at an improvised altar in the nursing facility's assembly room.

Mrs. Dorothy Tessier, social director for the nursing home, singled out St. Theodore's Legion of Mary as the agency urging the Mass.

Mrs. Tessier, who works with more than 150 residents of the home, also said that many women and teen-agers in the Gates-Chili area have volunteered to visit and cheer the patients. She indicated that many more volunteers are needed and interested persons may call her at 464-0770, ext. 30.

The home plans to schedule Protestant services in the near future.

Hornell — Sister Kathleen Ann Kolb, a junior in the St. James Mercy Hospital School of Nursing, has been awarded the Arthur R. Foreman, Sr., Memorial Merit Scholarship. The $100 award, given annually by the late Mr. Foreman's family, is for "dedication . . . kindness and sympathetic understanding of patients." Sister Kathleen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kolb of Winton Road, Rochester.

Cabrini Circle Plans Dinner

The Mother Cabrini Circle, which helps black students pay their way through Catholic high schools in Rochester, will hold its annual scholarship fundraiser Sunday afternoon, May 16, at Montgomery Neighborhood Center, 10 Cady St.

The smorgasbord dinner will be a 25th anniversary celebration for the circle, which was founded by one of Rochester's outstanding black citizens, the late Mrs. Harriet Schuyler.

Dinner will be served from 1 until 5:30 p.m., at $2.50 for adults, $1.25 for children. In the library there will be a display and sale of Mexican craft work arranged by Daniel and Margaret Whalen, who work among the poor of Mexico in winter. A portion of the profits will go to the scholarship fund.

Bexley Gets New Dean

The Rev. Hays H. Rockwell, now University of Rochester Protestant chaplain, will become dean of Bexley Hall, the Episcopal member of the Rochester Center for Theological Studies.

On Sept. 1, he will succeed the Rt. Rev. Daniel Corrigan, who became interim Dean in 1969 and will now return to his home in Denver, Colo.

"The decision to leave the university was not an easy one," the Rev. Mr. Rockwell said. "I enjoyed doing the job and felt I had really just begun."

"But the work at Bexley Hall seemed risky enough and interesting enough to try to undertake it. The institution is clearly committed to moving down the road. Very few institutions are willing to lay down everything and go. Colgate Rochester/Bexley Hall/Crozer seems to be on the verge of that."

The Rev. Mr. Rockwell will be Bexley Hall's chief representative at various functions, will work in the areas of recruitment and cultivation of the Bexley Hall constituency, and will serve as an advisor to Episcopal faculty and students.

Bexley Hall affiliated with Colgate Rochester Divinity School in 1968. The two schools, together with Crozer Theological Seminary and Roman Catholic St. Bernard's Seminary, now make up the Rochester Center for Theological Studies.
