

BOB CONSIDINE

On the Line

Before the canonization of Calley, shouldn't somebody ask the survivors of the Mylai massacre what THEY think?

Some recent church-going reminds us of a rhymed lament:

Latin's gone
Peace is too
Singin' and shoutin'
From every pew

Altar's turned around
Commentator's yellin'
Page twenty-two
Communion rail's goin'

Stand up straight
Kneelin' suddenly

Went outta date
Processions are formin'

In every aisle
Salvation's organized
Single file
Rosary's out

Psalms are in
Hardly ever hear
A word against sin.
Listen to the Lector

Hear how he reads —
Please stop rattlin'
Them rosary beads
Padre's lookin' puzzled

Doesn't know his part
Used to know the whole deal

Why do most of the new auto ads show the handsome cays sitting in the middle of a grassy field? Would the idiots from Madison Avenue please get them back on the highway, where they belong?

Had the feeling, while watching all those poor people wailing at the funeral of that utter despot, Papa Doc Duvalier, that they were chiefly mourning the ascension to the throne of his blob of a son, teenager Jean-Claude. How would you like them apples in 1972?

Communist Poland claims it has produced a cigaret virtually without nicotine and tar. Rich flavors, no filters to drag the smoke through, deep enjoyment, and cheap. Good! But I'd rather smoke a Polish ham, if you don't mind.

If my wife and daughter discussed detergents like the girls do in the TV commercials, I'd shoot both of them — and be acquitted in two minutes by the all-male jury.

V.P. Agnew, who has been in secret training for the U.S. Open, says the people should not be misled simply because a half a million demonstrators against the war in Vietnam gathered in Washington, San Francisco and elsewhere. He said they represented a small fraction of the population. "I think," he told a reporter, "a lot of them are well motivated, but confused."

Guy named George III said something like that, years and years ago.
