

Sisters Hoof It for Good Cause

Elmira — There were four very tired Roman Catholic sisters in Waverly recently. The sisters plus more than 100 other persons, had just walked 20 miles to do their part in a March of Dimes Walk-A-Thon.

The amazing fact about the long walk was that everyone finished the exercise in stamina.

An added attraction to the Walk-A-Thon, which was held May 1, around the Waverly area, was the $100 each person earned for the March of Dimes by completing the 20 mile course.

The sisters who kept on their toes for the long voyage by foot power were: Sister Suzanne Holahan, Sister Mary Nathanael, Sister Kay Schwenzer and Sister Anne Sutton.

Marching with the sisters were more than 100 Notre Dame High School students and two teachers from the Elmira Catholic high school.

The group picked up a cool $10,600 to help the March of Dimes. Sponsors put up the backing for the strong legged individuals.
