Our Gal in

HORNELL

Mrs. Peggy Pease

In an effort to improve coverage of the Hornell area, the Courier-Journal has added Mrs. Peggy Pease as its Hornell correspondent.

Mrs. Pease formerly worked for Radio Station WWHG, Dist. Atty. Lurton G. Whiteman and a law firm.

She has served as president, province director and secretary for Alpha Zeta Beta Sorority. She has studied recently at Alfred, mainly interested in psychology.

She teaches a fifth grade CCD class and serves as homeroom mother for Grade 5 of Columbian School.

Closer to home, Peggy has three children, Jan, 12, Susan, 6, and Jack, 5. A widow, her husband died in 1967, Peggy relaxes by bicycling, reading and collecting poetry.

If you have news of the Hornell area for the Courier-Journal give Peggy Pease a call.
