

Ithaca Priest Named To Nation-Wide Post

A native diocesan, Father Thomas Kelly, O.P., since 1965 secretary at the Apostolic Delegation of Pope Paul in Washington, has been named to be Associate General Secretary of the National Council of Catholic Bishops.

Father Kelly, 39, was born in Rochester and went to Ithaca High School and Regis High School in New York City before ordination in 1958. He studied theology in the Dominican House of Studies in Washington, received a doctorate in canon law in Rome and did graduate work at the University of Vienna and Cambridge University in England.

Prior to his Washington duties he was secretary in the office of the Dominican's New York Province.

His mother, Mrs. Walter J. Conley, is a member of Immaculate Conception parish in Ithaca.

ST. BERNARD FETE

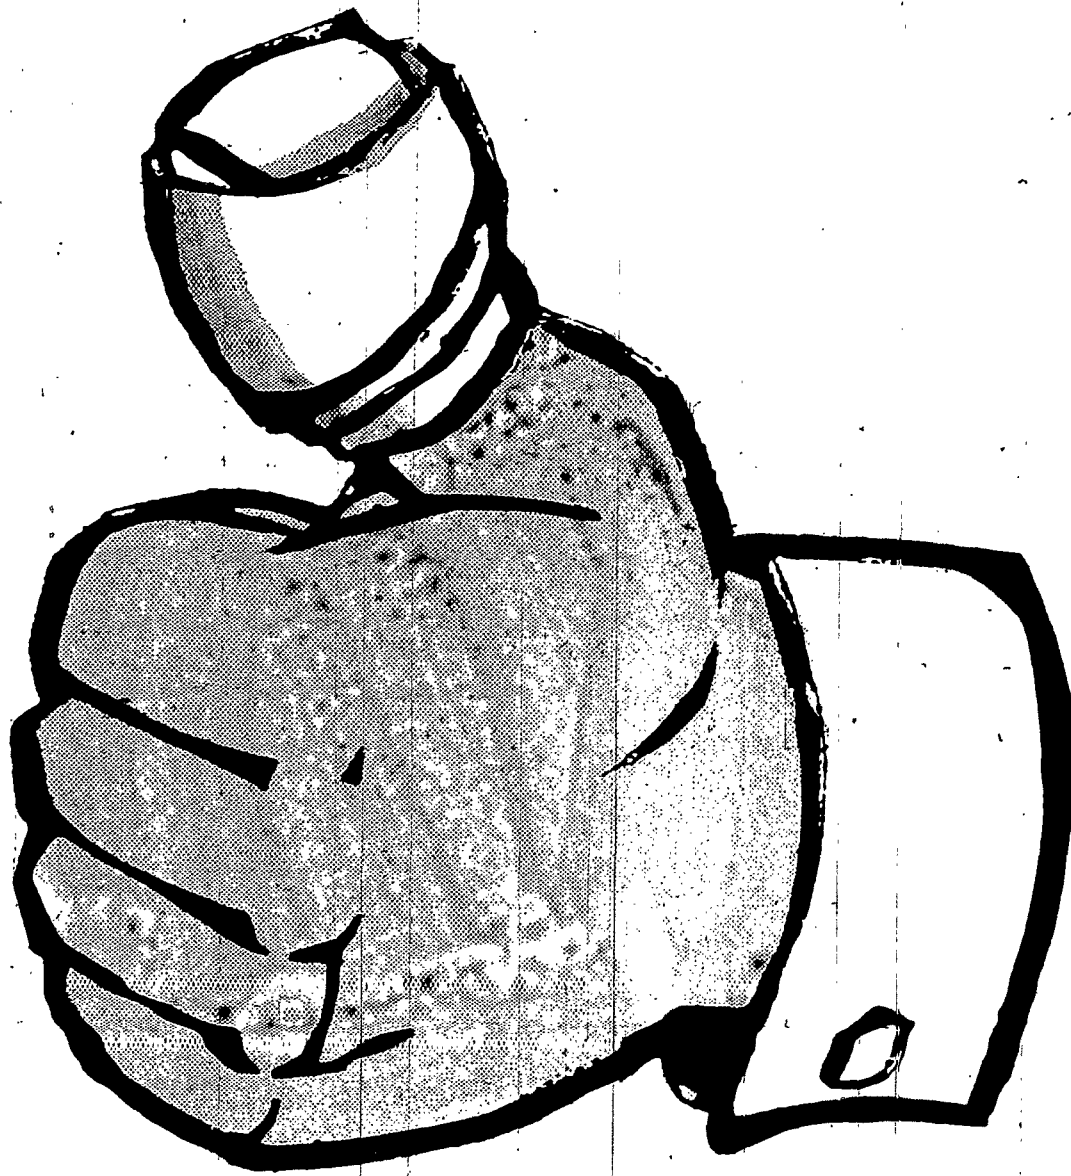

Scipio Center — "Rain or Shine" the annual chicken barbecue and festival to benefit ST. BERNARD'S CHURCH will be held on Sunday, June 20 from noon until 5 o'clock on church grounds.

Closing Words

Bishop Hogan gives the final homily at the last Mass of the priests' retreat held last week at Becket Hall for more than 80 diocesan priests.

If you'd rather not do it yourself,

take our money for it

The old house needs fixing, and you'd like it done without lifting a tool. So come on over for a home-improvement loan. Or if you want to do it yourself, take our money for materials. We like to help.

That's what neighbors are for.
