As I See It

You say you don't get to the movies very often? Well cheer up and tune in to the "Movie Game" at 1 p.m. on Channel 8. I watch it mostly on Mondays or whenever else the clothes folding lasts into the afternoon.

Larry Blyden is the host and he conducts the proceedings with a cheerful kind of inefficiency that detracts from the game but not enough to impair the fun.

There are two teams, composed of three Hollywood celebrities each, whose job it is to guess the identity of the actor or actress or the film itself featured in a multitude of clips.

Actually the celebrities detract from the show, too. In a recent show, Dick Martin, Lorne Greene, Lily Tomlin, Peter Lawford, Nanette Fabray and Desi Arnaz Jr. sat like bumps on a log taking up good space to say nothing of air time.

So, where's the fun? In the old film clips, that's where.

Seems as though I'm always hearing about film stars of yesterday and their classic performances. But, seldom do I get to see much of them.

On the "Movie Game", I watched a long, lovely bit between Mae West and Cary Grant that was more entertaining than memorable, then learned that it was the start of Grant's career.

From Carole Lombard to Kim Novak, Patsy Kelly to Nancy Walker. Ditto for their male counterparts. They are all there. There is a lot of current material too as witnessed by a couple of scenes from the most recent adaptation of "Wuthering Heights."

Channel 8 sandwiches its "Dialing for Dollars" show in between the screenings which may or may not be a distraction for others. I personally find the money giveaway shows annoying, but that could be only sour grapes on my part.

Speaking of money giveaway shows and telephone calls to viewers' homes, I've always wondered what happened should a station announcer make a call where a family is going through a crisis.

I found out last week when Channel 13 Computer Cash Call apparently got a woman on the line who had been very recently bereaved. The woman ended up trying to guess the amount of money anyway. It was a sticky situation, handled fairly well by the young man in charge. But it does seem that the stations should have a pat solution to such calls, preferably terminating the call immediately as soon as the situation is sensed.

Nazareth Graduation

Monsignor Charles V. Boyle, pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church, Rochester, with his niece, Miss Patricia Boyle, 33 Coolidge Road, following commencement exercises at Nazareth College. Miss Boyle received a bachelor of science degree in art.

Janice and Joyce Recchio, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Recchio, 156 Rustic St., shown here following their graduation from Nazareth College. Both received bachelor of arts degrees in sociology.

HELP HER BECOME A SISTER
THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH

Have you ever wished your family had a nun? Now you can have a 'nun of your own'—and share forever in all the good she does. . . Who is she? A healthy wholesome, penniless girl in her teens or early twenties, she dreams of the day she can bring God's love to lepers, orphans, the aging. . . Help her become a Sister? To pay all her expenses this year and next she needs only $12.50 a month ($150 a year, $300 altogether). She'll write you to express her thanks, and she'll pray for you at daily Mass. In just two years you'll have a 'Sister of your own'. . . We'll send you her name on receipt of your first gift. As long as she lives you'll know you are helping the pitiable people she cares for. . . Please write us today so she can begin her training. She prays someone will help.

In the hands of a thrifty native Sister your gift in any amount ($1,000, $750, $500, $250, $100, $75, $25, $15, $10, $5, $2) will fill empty stomachs with milk, rice, fish and vegetables. . . If you feel nobody needs you, help feed hungry boys and girls!

Now you can provide for a fixed income for life, while providing the necessities of life for Christ's poor. A CATHOLIC NEAR EAST WELFARE ASSOCIATION ANNUITY guarantees a regular income with no investment worry or responsibility. You receive an attractive rate of return while gaining immediate and long term tax advantages. Write now for additional information and the rate of return you will receive on your investment in the missions. Please indicate your date of birth and whether male or female.
