

Nazareth Hosts Music Workshop

Plans are nearing completion for the Summer Liturgy Workshop scheduled for next week, June 21-25, on the Nazareth College Campus.

Composers, performing artists, choral directors and liturgists headline the program which is being sponsored by the Diocesan Music Commission, under the direction of Father Benedict Ehmann, and the World Library of Sacred Music, a Cleveland-based publishing house.

Father Lucien Deiss, world renowned liturgist will start the week of programs off on Monday evening.

Fathers Neil Blunt and Jack Miffleton will demonstrate their folk music during the week. Father Miffleton is the composer of "Alle, Alle", a song which is sung in many diocesan churches.

Appearing with the priests in a Tuesday night concert of folk music will be Skip Sanders, recording artist heard on "Some Young Carpenter," "With Skins and Steel", and "No Time Like the Present."

Syracuse director, Anthony J. Lombardo will conduct a choral reading session on Wednesday evening, including a demonstration of electronic music.

For registration for either the entire workshop or individual events in it, please contact Father Ehmann at (716) 325-4040.
