

Pringle Simmons, a college junior working at the Catholic Family Center agency on Gorham Street, unloads clothes to be given out during this summer.

Rafael Martinez looks over the empty office space of a legal commune for the Puerto Rican families seen on page 6-A.
