

Country Fair

Kid stuff at the St. Pius X country fair includes vehicles like the one shown loaded with neighborhood children. The fair, Aug. 28 and 29, will feature a ham supper at a price established in 1954 at the first parish fair. Suppertime will be 5 to 7 Saturday evening and 4 to 7 Sunday, at 3000 Chili Avenue.

Narcotics Board Named

Seven members have been named to the City Narcotics Guidance Council by the Rochester City Council. The new board will seek means to deal with drug abuse.

Richard B. Boddie of 457 Hillside Ave. was designated chairman. Others named are: Rev. Thomas M. Fassett, 140 Rockingham St., minister of the Métropolitan Urban Mission; William Madison, 123 Shelter St., director of FIGHT's Youth Drug Prevention Program; Juan Casado Marrero, 493 University Ave., art teacher at the Spanish Cultural Center; William A. Muoio, 92 Macbeth St., lawyer; Dr. John Peachey, 305 Barrington St., physician; Lawrence Stott, 527 Woodbine Ave., pharmacist.

Studying is one of the hardest and most important things you child does. Did you ever stop to consider how much he depends upon his eyes for studying? It has been estimated that 87% of all we know about the world comes through our eyes. To help prevent eye fatigue and drowsiness during a study ses-

with Better Light

Better Sight Tag

sion, good lighting is essential. The Better Light Better Sight Bureau six years ago set up standards for proper study light. Any lamp which. meets these requirements, no matter who manufactured it, carries a tag that states, "This is a Better Light Better Sight Bureau Study Lamp."

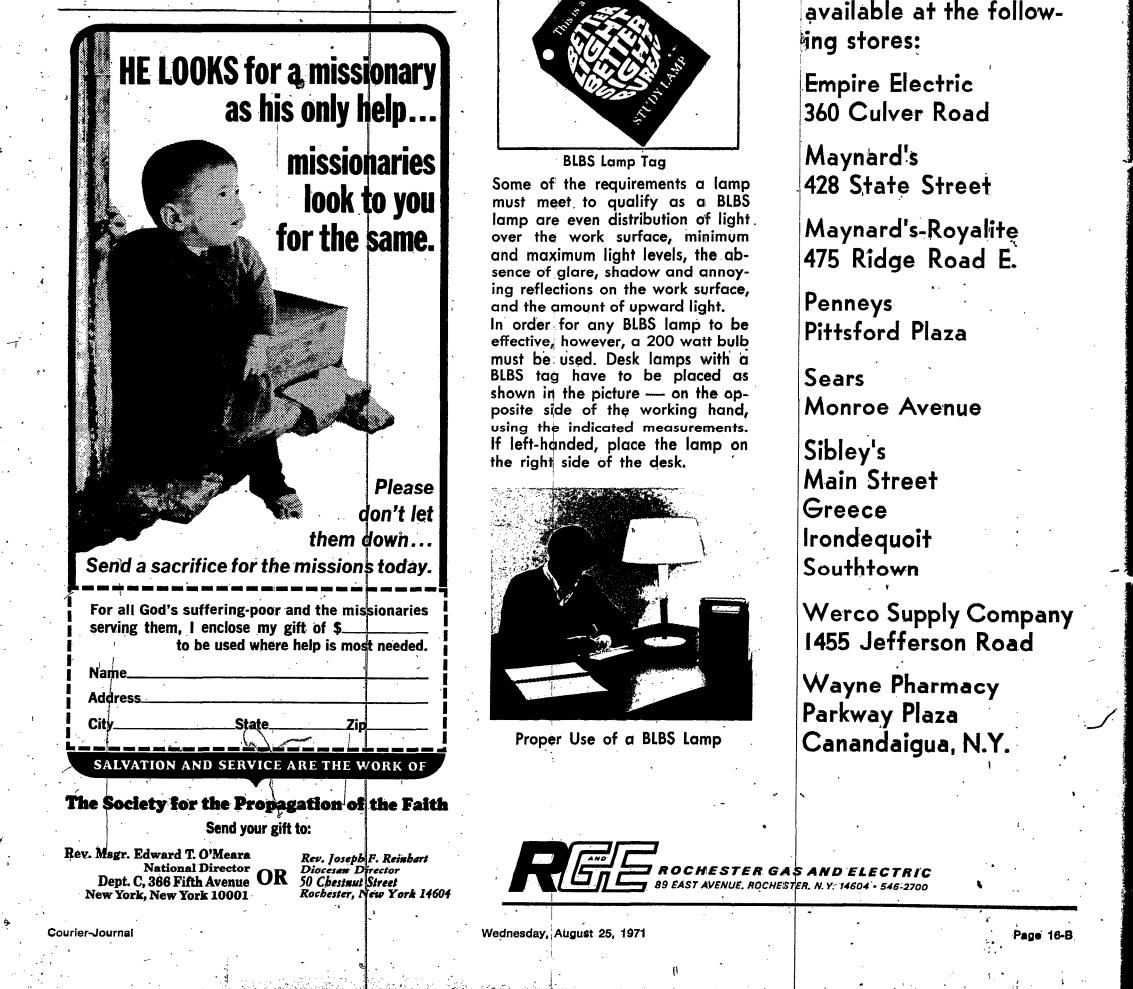

Various Styles Available

consumer news

Look for Student Lamps

The BLBS lamps are available in various styles and colors. While the most popular so far has been the desk lamp, wall lamps and handsome floor lamps are also available. You can choose from metal bases, to orange plastic bases and from a cloth shade to a molded plastic shade.

RG&E does not carry BLBS lamps. They are available at the follow-

ou on

ba ta

er

Th

rit

an

pa

of

ho

Le

tar do

27,

bil

and

by

stu

tiv fea

and

Joi Th We

Col